Buffalo; No. 1 Alfalfa meal $23, white hominy $30, St. Louis. Cotton feed $48 Chicago; beet pulp north eastern markets; oatfeed $12.50@13 western markets.

Grain.—The week's wheat markets opened strong as result of better sentiment due to heavy export business and continued to advance steadily until noon on the 13th when the high price of $1.84 1/2 for Chicago March was reached. Prices then began to fall. Chicago March wheat closing at $1.77 1/2 on the 14th. On the 10th sterling exchange advanced 7 1/2¢ and this had a decidedly bullish effect upon wheat prices that day. British commission now out of market and export demand slow. Germany and France reported having purchased million bushels Argentina wheat recently. In Minneapolis on the 13th, flour demand fair with good milling demand for wheat. In Kansas City milling demand fair; export demand reported good. Premiums in Chicago cash market Jan. 14th: No. 2 red winter wheat $9@23¢ over March; No. 2 hard $9 1/2¢ over; No. 2 mixed corn 5 1/2¢ under May; yellow 7 1/2¢ under. In Minneapolis No. 2 dark northern 10 1/2¢ over. Minneapolis March. In Kansas City No. 2 hard winter 5 1/2¢ over Kansas City March. For the week Chicago March wheat gained 4 1/2¢ at $1.77 1/2; May corn lost 1/2¢ at 74 1/2¢. Minneapolis March wheat up 4 1/2¢ at $1.77 1/2; Kansas City March up 4 1/2¢ at $1.77 1/2; Winnipeg May up 5 1/2¢ at $1.99 1/2; Chicago May wheat $1.70 1/2.

Live Stock and Meats.—With the exception of fat ewes, feeding lambs and feeding steers, all classes of live stock at Chicago showed declines for the week. Hogs lost 15¢@25¢; beef and butcher cattle and fat lambs 25¢@50¢. Yearling weathers broke 50¢@75¢ per 100 lbs. Ewes advanced 50¢@1. January 14th Chicago prices: Bulk of hogs $9.50 @9.50; medium and good beef steers $8.25@11; butcher cows and heifers $4.60@9.75; feeding steers $7@9.25; light and medium weight veal calves $10@12; fat lambs $10.25@11.75; feeding lambs $8.25@10.50; yearlings $8.25 @9.75; fat ewes $4.25@8.25.

Dairy Products.—Butter markets have been weak and unsettled during the week, early price declines being supplemented by further declines on the 13th. In eastern markets prices are now five to seven cents lower than a week ago. Heavy imports on way and final arrivals of New Zealand and Pacific coast butter largely responsible for weakness. Prices, 92 score New York 51¢, Chicago 45 1/2¢; Philadelphia and Boston 52¢.

The Peanut a Valuable Crop.
The exports of peanuts from China during 1919 amounted to 173,635,867 pounds, valued at $7,950,008, according to the American consul at Shanghai. The shipments were distributed as follows: Japan received 73 1/2 per cent, Hongkong 13 1/2 per cent, United States 4 per cent, and other countries 9 per cent.

Immense Cabbage Crop.
The 1920 commercial crop of late cabbage was fully double the crop of 1919 and over one-fourth larger than in 1918. New York, which usually supplies about one-half the total commercial crop of the nine leading states, had 319,825 tons, compared with 130,775 tons last season and 254,800 tons in 1918.

The KITCHEN CABINET

"Ye who would know love's highest reach of bliss
The still white peaks of peace—remember this:
Before a soul can face that steady light
It must have plumbed pain's nethermost abyss."

SEASONABLE GOOD THINGS.

At any season of the year frozen dishes are agreeable and something a little different is always welcomed.

Ice Cream With Toasted Marshmallows and Chocolate Sauce.—Crush one junket tablet and dissolve in one tablespoonful of cold water. Have ready the can of the freezer, with the dasher in place; put in one quart of rich milk, one cupful of double cream, one cupful of sugar, one tablespoonful of vanilla, mix and let stand over water until just lukewarm and the mixture jellies; then cool and freeze. Serve in glasses with a hot chocolate sauce and a toasted marshmallow above.

Frozen Fruit Salad.—Cut six slices of canned pineapple in small, wedge-shaped pieces; add the same quantity of canned peaches, pears or quinces, with the liquid from the fruit to fill a quart mold; spread a paper over the mold, press down the cover and pack in equal measures of ice and salt. Let stand two hours. The mixture should not be frozen too stiff. Serve cut in slices on nests of lettuce, with salad dressing. A mayonnaise is especially good with this salad.

Chestnut Bavarian Cream.—Shell, blanch and steam until tender one quart of large chestnuts. Reserve twelve of them and mash the remainder while hot. Add to them a half cupful of hot cream in which has been dissolved one tablespoonful of powdered gelatine, previously soaked in one-quarter of a cupful of cold water. Add one teaspoonful of vanilla and a pinch of salt. When cool and beginning to thicken, add one cupful of thick cream whipped to a stiff froth, and one tablespoonful of orange juice. Pour into a wet mold and set away to become firm. Turn out, and garnish with the reserved nuts dipped in egg white and roll in fine granulated sugar.

Cider Cake.—Take three cupfuls of flour, two cupfuls of sugar, one cupful of butter, three eggs, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of soda, one cupful of cider, one teaspoonful of cinnamon and allspice mixed. Mix and bake in a moderate oven and when cold cover with a brown sugar frosting.

"He who works not, shall not eat."
"Twas no warning hurled in heat
At some shirker in the shade:
'Twas a plan that nature made.
Prince and pauper, here they meet;
He who works not, shall not eat."

SOMETHING WE LIKE.

Who could refuse a dainty salad prepared according to the following recipe:

Tango Salad.
Peel, halve and core ripe, juicy pears and if desired cut in thin slices without cutting quite through to preserve the shape and make the salad easier to serve oneself. Rub the pears with lemon juice, or squeeze a few drops over them to prevent discoloring. Set a ball of cream cheese or a cube of Roquefort or any desired cheese in the cavity in the center of the pears; set aside on heart leaves of lettuce and pour over a highly seasoned dressing like the Jellied Olive and Nut Salad.—Put two cupfuls of sugar into a saucepan; add one cupful of cider vinegar, six cloves, one bay leaf; boil for five minutes, then take from the fire and add three and three-fourths tablespoonfuls of gelatin dissolved in three cupfuls of water. Strain and cool; add one cupful of stuffed olives sliced thin and one cupful of broken walnut meats. Pour into a wet mold. When firm serve with it mayonnaise.

Grape Fruit Salad.—Take one crisp head of endive, shredded very fine, remove the pulp from one good-sized grape fruit, saving the juice. Put in a salad bowl with two tablespoonfuls of oil, two teaspoonfuls of sugar, a dash of red pepper and salt and the juice from the grape fruit. Toss and mix adding more salt if needed.

Spanish Sandwiches.—Chop twelve drained anchovies, two tablespoonfuls of capers, four branches of parsley, then pound with a pestle, adding meanwhile a teaspoonful of made mustard, one tablespoonful each of oil, vinegar and two hard-cooked egg yolks. Mix and spread on bread prepared for sandwiches, sprinkle with the chopped egg whites, press together and serve.

Banana Pie.—Press enough peeled bananas through a ricer to fill a cup. To this add half a cup of sugar, two tablespoonfuls of molasses, half a teaspoonful of salt, one beaten egg, one-half teaspoonful of cinnamon, half a cup of milk and one-third of a cup of cream. Mix thoroughly and bake in a plate lined with pastry.

YOU NEVER KNOW, YOU KNOW

Probably Jimmy Was Wise in His Selection of a Present for His Mother.

Jimmy Clerkenwell and the boy next door were discussing Christmas and Christmas presents.

"They had mentioned most of the articles that they would like to receive themselves, and then the talk turned to the various presents that they should give to other people.

"What are you going to give your mother for Christmas?" asked Jimmy.

"Oh, I don't know!" was the reply. "I thought of giving her a paper knife."

"A paper knife!" echoed Jimmy scornfully. "What's the good of that?"

"Well, what are you going to give yours?" questioned Jimmy's friend.

"Oh," answered the young sage wisely, "I believe in preparing for war in times of peace. I'm going to give her a pair of slippers with soft soles."

He Has a Future.

When James Henry went to grandmother's he expected to get candy, or money to spend for it at the grocery.

On one occasion, following the usual demand for candy, grandmother forestalled any further requests by remarking that there was not a cent in the house.

The youngster was taken aback for a moment before he gravely inquired, "Well, grandmother, couldn't you write a check?"

Hall's Catarrh Medicine
Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions. All druggists. MISTAKE IN THE LOCATION

Despite Waiter's Assertion, Traveler Was Convinced They Were in the Wrong Room.

The late William Dean Howells was very fond of traveling in Spain. He once said on his return from Andalusia:

"The Spaniards, especially the southern Spaniards, have enormous families. Eight children is the average and families of 16 and 17 children are quite common.

"But they don't know how to raise these children. They take babies of three or four months traveling with them. In every hotel and train there are sure to be as many babies as adults.

"I was ushered one evening by a Malaga waiter into the lofty marble and bronze restaurant of a sumptuous hotel. The restaurant was crowded with babies.

"This is our dining hall, senor," said the waiter, complacently. "I put my hands over my ears.

"Your dining hall? I said. 'Don't you mean your bawl room?'"

Papa Missed Her, Too.

Priscilla had been to school a few days for the first time in her life when she met a friend on the street one day, who inquired about how she was getting along.

"Mamma does not like to have me go very well," she said, "because she misses me at home."

"But what does your papa say about it?" inquired the friend.

"Oh, he is kind of uneasy in his mind, too," answered Priscilla.

Boil Your Postum fully fifteen minutes when you use POSTUM CEREAL

Then there results a drink of delicious flavor which many prefer to coffee. Postum is more economical and healthful than coffee. Another form, Instant Postum, is made by adding hot water to a teaspoonful in the cup. The drink may be made strong or mild to suit individual taste.
