

1921 FARM PLANS

This year will require close figuring to meet new conditions successfully. Each problem should be clearly fixed in mind and a solution worked out.

Wouldn't it be a good move on your part to talk over your problems with us in a friendly, confidential way.

You are welcome to do so at any time, but where your money interests are concerned, a good time is right now.

them to feeding grounds in the Bend this week. Doc Pullen is helping him for a few days.

Mrs. F. L. DeBord and Mrs. Fred Klingback have lately received the announcement of the marriage of their sister, Miss Flora L. Tufts, a graduate nurse who visited here two years ago, to Edward Chas. Mackin of Walla Walla on New Year's day.

Rev. Hollenbeck, who is making his headquarters at the Bigelow home during his stay in Owyhee, went to Nyssa Monday with S. D. Bigelow.

Mrs. D. P. Pullen was quite ill the first of the week.

J. P. McGinnis received a telegram last week telling of the death of a relative, Robert Lowland, of Wyoming.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Slippy was very ill last week, but is now some better.

Mrs. Charlotte McGinnis and Mrs. E. F. Pratt attended the Keleny P. T. A. Friday afternoon.

John Bigelow, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Claude Willson and baby of Nyssa visited at the S. D. Bigelow home Saturday.

Ed Tenhave made a trip to Vale last week, taking over a load of hides.

T. M. Lowe, who is serving on the jury in Vale, came home for Sunday, returning to Vale Monday.

"Leo," the Basque sheepman, who purchased Charlie Schweizer's hay, brought his sheep there to feed the last of the week.

Fred Solvrey was down from his ranch up the river Monday.

Kenneth McDonald was an overnight guest of his cousins, the DeBord children, Saturday, when they all enjoyed themselves skating along the river. The skating is pretty scarce this year, owing to the lack of that prime necessity, ice.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Newbill of Ontario, were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Glascock Monday, returning home Tuesday.
