Big Bend

The Farm Bureau meeting held at the Park Hall last Friday was well attended by Big Bend and Kingsman Kolony people, but the condition of the roads kept many away who lived at a distance. The Ladies Aid Society served a delicious cafeteria lunch at noon after which the meeting was called to order by L. G. Pillsbury. Officers were elected as follows: Chairman, L. C. Pillsbury. Vice chairman, Frank Miller. Secretary, Frank Easthus. Reports of the year's work were made by the various committees. Commissioner Dean gave an interesting talk on the marketing situation and Miss Mazie Wilson read a letter from Mr. Breithaupt, who was unable to attend on account of illness.

The Big Bend theatrical troupe went to Kingsman Kolony Saturday night and presented their play, "All a Mistake," before an appreciative audience.

Mrs. Everett Tate entertained the members of the girls' sewing club at her home Friday evening. The girls spent the evening playing various games and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were Irene Brumbach, Anna Phelan, Mary Somer, Marian Roberts, Francis Peck, Lillian Grant and Marie Tate.

The next meeting of the Ladies Aid Society will be held at the home of Mrs. Carl McCullough on Thursday, February 2.

Frank Miller and P. E. Anderson each shipped a carload of cattle to Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Misk Phelan went to Caldwell Saturday, having been summoned by the serious illness of Mrs. Phelan's mother.

E. H. Brumbach, who was one of the jurors in the Howard murder case, returned from Vale Friday.

Mrs. Ralph Hayworth and little daughter are visiting relatives at Star. Mrs. C. E. Winter is in Boise receiving treatment from an ear specialist.

Robert Peck, a student of the Nyssa High School, visited at home over Sunday.

Church services at the Wade school house last Sunday evening were well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Pillsbury were dinner guests at the Peck home Sunday.

Special February Offer

on Western Electric Sewing Machines

The laborious part of your sewing—the pedaling—costs no more than running an eight candle power electric light when you use the Western Electric portable sewing machine.

A Month of Opportunity
Your chance is here this month to put this fine piece of household machinery into your home for just a few dollars a month.

No. 1 machine, $12 down and $6 a month
No. 2 machine, $16 down and $8 a month

These models are light and easy to carry as a packed suit case. You may take one home and try for a few days without any obligation to buy it. There's a 10 per cent special discount for cash purchase.

A Motor That Does the Work

The "Sew E-Z" electric motor attaches to any type of treadle machine and turns it into an electrically operated machine.
