Albert Hinesch was a business visitor to Ontario Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dunn were visitors to Ontario Monday.

Mrs. Nettie McNea is moving into her residence on Main street.

The Misses Eva Boydell and Margaret Covell visited at Parma Saturday.

Mrs. Randall Sage of Ontario was a visitor at the W. G. Cathey home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Parsons and daughter are visiting relatives in Nyssa.

Mr. and Mrs. Halton Stevens of Apple Valley were visiting in Nyssa Sunday.

Mrs. Alpha Andersen of Baker is visiting her parents and other relatives in Nyssa this week.

C. M. Prettyman, local manager of the Gem State Lumber Co., is in Pocatello this week on business.

William Ward of Prairie City is visiting relatives and looking after property interests in Nyssa this week.

Mrs. P. M. Binkley returned the first of the week from a three weeks visit with her daughter at Prosser, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Dunham were visiting at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. H. I. Haley, during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Sage are moving to Nyssa from Ontario and will be located on the Morehead farm, north-east of Nyssa.

Mrs. R. M. DeArmond of Vale was a house guest of Mrs. J. P. Dunaway last week, and together the ladies spent the week-end at Boise.

V. W. Wills, brother of J. W. Wills, who has been visiting at Nyssa for the past two weeks, left Monday for a trip into Mexico, via California.

E. B. Conklin, the well known rancher and educator, was in Nyssa Wednesday from his farm near Ontario. Mr. Conklin was superintendent of the Nyssa school last year.

R. E. Taylor, agent for Closset & Devers, was in Nyssa this week introducing the Nu-Ray-A Tea. See ad on 8th page for details for securing a package of tea free.

Miss Nellie Morris has opened a millinery store in Ontario and invites the ladies of Nyssa and vicinity to call and inspect her stock. A fine line of Easter hats to select from. See her announcement on 4th page.

Morris Fenn this week moved to his ranch on the Owyhee, for which he recently traded his residence property in Nyssa to Archie Suelair. Archie evened things up by moving to town. We thus lose one good citizen and gain another.

R. E. Conley, a prosperous farmer near Caldwell, was in Nyssa during the past week visiting at the home of his brother, J. W. Conley of Bridge Island, and looking after property interests. He owns a 40-acre tract in the Arcadia neighborhood.

E. A. Larkin has purchased the Williams Produce Co. store, which will hereafter be under the management of Larkin Bros. Mr. Williams, who has been conducting the business, expects soon to engage in pastoral work in the Nazarine church.

Artie Robertson this week received his appointment as mail carrier on Route 1 out of Nyssa and will begin his duties next Monday. George Schweizer has held down the job for the past month, pending the appointment of a regular carrier, and has given splendid service.

Mr. Priest, general agent for the O. S. L. at Boise, was in town Friday to consult with City Attorney Blodgett in regard to the train schedule. Mr. Priest was very interested in Nyssa and promised to do all within his power to give us better passenger accommodations, especially going west.

A party of Nyssaites returned this week from an extended visit to their old home in Holland. The party consisted of John Stam, Dirk Stam, wife and two children, Garrett Stam and wife, Jacob van Twisk and Mr. Rellik. Mrs. Garret Stam was one of Holland's fairest daughters, who won Garrett's heart during his visit home and who was persuaded to accompany him to the new world. She will receive a cordial welcome by her new friends in Nyssa and vicinity.

Alex Brough was an Ontario visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Spencer of Boise were visitors in Nyssa Sunday.

Mrs. Mabel Murray of Vale, visited friends in Nyssa during the week end. Mrs. R. Clark and Miss Della Clark were visitors at Boise the first of the week.

Mrs. Fred Marshall went to Payette Wednesday to meet friends from Portland.

After several weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. O. S. Tyler, of New Plymouth, Mrs. M. M. Maxwell, with her daughter, Corinne, has returned to their home in Kingman Kolony.

A sale of horses and cows, farm implements and household goods will be held by W. L. Wilson at the Tom Coward ranch on March 18.

The evangelistic meetings at the Presbyterian church were highly appreciated by all who attended. Good congregations greeted the speaker at every service. The meetings closed on Sunday evening while many regretted that they could not continue for another week. Several expressed a desire to confess Christ, and they will be received at Easter into the fellowship of the church. The Rev. W. F. Cochran gave good and inspiring sermons while here.

Masons Make Merry

A large number of local Masons went to Parma Tuesday evening to partake of work and to celebrate with the Parma lodge of Master Masons. It was the occasion of the making of the 100th Mason in the Parma lodge. The Nyssa team put on the Master Mason degree in courtesy to the neighboring brothers.

After the work, a splendid banquet was given in the rooms of the Parma Memorial Hall by the Eastern Star.

Parma proved to be a most excellent host, and entertained the visitors in a way that left nothing to be desired, there being about 200 Masons present, visitors from Nyssa, Caldwell and Wilder. Those present from here were: F. D. Hall, A. E. Boydell, I. Lax, H. Walters, J. Boydell, D. W. Gibson, E. B. Nedry, A. P. Gibson, J. P. Dunaway, S. D. Goshert, O. C. Bauer, F. E. Young, W. F. ## Masons to Ontario

The local Masons were again given a big time, this time at Ontario, Thursday. Acacia Lodge No. 118, Ontario, proved royal hosts, giving their guests a big banquet, and putting four candidates through the 3d degree. About 300 Masons were present, there being visitors from Payette, Nyssa, Vale and other lodges. The Payette and Nyssa teams each conferred the 3d degree, out of courtesy to the Ontario lodge. It was one of the biggest gatherings of Masons ever held in this section. Those attending from Nyssa were: F. D. Hall, E. M. Dean, F. E. Young, I. Lax, G. H. Prottyman, S. D. Goshert, J. Boydell, J. H. Wolf, A. B. Boydell, C. H. Crawford, W. F. Shields, F. M. Duan, E. B. Nedry, Dr. Reynolds, A. W. Ward, J. P. Gunaway.
