It's A Beauty

A RANGE
to be Proud of

Graceful colonial design; straight sturdy legs; nicked trimmings on the handsome Nesco grey and black colors; turquoise blue porcelain enameled chimneys, such are the Nesco Perfect Oil Cook Stoves.

You'll like to see such a stove in your kitchen. It will add beauty. It is bright in appearance.

A Range to Be Proud of

Show your friends into your kitchen after you shall have installed a Nesco Perfect Oil Cook Stove.

The pleasure from such showing is no greater than that derived because of convenience, ease and comfort obtained in three times a day cooking.

Call and See This Beauty Stove

Glad to have you stop in and examine the Nesco Perfect and find out how beautiful it really is and how it works. See also other useful household articles that will really help you in your daily work.

Big Bend

The Aid Society met with Mrs. George Sargent last Thursday and spent the afternoon sewing for Mrs. E. Tate, who has been ill for several weeks. Plans were made for the annual dinner in honor of the husbands of the members, which will be held at the park Sunday, June 5, and it was also decided to discontinue the meetings during the summer. At the close of the afternoon, tea and wafers were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. Will Gibson.

A large number of old friends of the deceased went from here to attend the funeral of A. J. Rockwood.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Park Association was held last week and committees appointed to arrange details for the Fourth of July celebration. Mrs. E. H. Brumback was chosen chairman of the program committee; Jesse Johnston, decorations; Thos. Welch, sports.

The favorite diversion of Bend people last week was going to the bridge south of Parma to watch the flood waters of the Boise river. A mile of the road between the bridge and Parma was under water, but the bridge and its approaches were saved by the strenuous efforts of a large force of workmen who for three days built dykes along the approaches.

The young men's auxiliary of the Altar Society of the Catholic church will give a benefit dance at the park pavilion Thursday evening, May 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Sargent and children were Sunday guests at the Winters home.
