

We never prepare for the 4th by halves

You'll see suits here today that we bought 3 weeks ago for the 4th of July—not 4 months ago for the 3rd of March.

You'll see straw hats in all braids—Silk Shirts in beautiful new colors—Soft Colors in new shapes—Hosiery in recent weavings—that were not in this store this time last week.

We go in for the 4th as lavishly as we go in for Easter and this year above all we have spread our efforts, for as we reason:

The entire male chorus of this city will want to render the Star Spangled Banner in active new clothes.

KINGMAN KOLONY

Virgil Fogle is home from the Roar Lands ranch this week, and is helping with the haying.

A number from the Kolony have made trips to the Roswell cherry orchards thepast week, securing sweet cherries.

County club leader, Wellman, was calling upon club members and leaders in this and adjoining districts Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice L. Judd, of Parma, were visiting home folks in the Kolony Sunday.

The Y. P. C. held their regular meeting Friday evening of last week.
Games and refreshments were amply provided by the host of the evening, Mr. Alvin Shafer, and his assistants, Mrs. Gamber and Mrs. F. L. DeBord, as chaperons.

Most of the ranchers finish haying this week and a fair crop in good condition is reported.

Miss Maud Moses, who has been attending "Wayland Academy" at Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, returned to her home Saturday for a short visit.
She expects to attend summer normal school and plans to teach next year.

Mr. T. H. Wayne, of the Intermountain Nursery Co. of Payette, Idaho, was canvassing the Kolony this week. He reports a number of the people of this section ordering fruit and ornamental shade trees.

An evidence of law enforcement in this vicinity this week was welcomed by the whole community: The Island in the Snake river, known as "Wick-Cat Island" was raided Monday by the sheriff, Prosecuting Attorney Robert Lytle, and a federal agent, and a complete outfit secured; a man (known as Charley Curley), still and liquor, being captured.
