WORTH FAR MORE THAN GOLD

Value of Good Credit Must Never Be Forgotten by the Community or Its Citizens.The following little story has aroused much interest among Kansas merchants and credit men. It was recently published in the bulletin of the Pittsburgh, Kan., Merchants' association."I buy your groceries, your dry goods, your home—everything you use or need."I am not money; I am its superior.
I buy many times more than all the gold in the world. With me money may be bought."I am the very basis upon which the business life of the world has been built, more so in modern times than ever before."I am founded upon honesty, and built upon faith in mankind, and woe unto the man or woman who wilfully abuses me."I have given men the means to become rich, means which nothing else could place within their reach."I am, when rightly used, the greatest means of prosperity and happiness, but when abused, I have brought misery into the lives of men and women."I am confidence placed in a man's ability and reliability to meet his future obligations."I am greater than industry and capital, for I demand industry and capital of others on the strength of ability and disposition to make my promises good.

"I am good credit."

GET AFTER THAT BACK YARD

One Unsightly, Neglected Place Will Spoil the Appearance of Otherwise Well-Kept Street.Back yards are something big city dwellers long for and small town dwellers long to get rid of. But back yards are a geographical condition; the yearning is about as close as a cityite ever gets to one, while the small town dweller finds it hard to dispense with for want of something to take its place.A back yard in some seasons of the year is not exactly an object of beauty.
Painstaking fences are in a more or less acute state of unrepair, tin cans, old shoes and worn out brooms have somehow eluded the garbage can.Why not get busy and give the back yard a thorough house-cleaning? The exercise will do you good, and the neighbors will rise up and acclaim you.

Oklahoma Club Members Feel at Home.

Even at home, "the little piece of home" taken overseas by the Y. W.
C. A. for our boys, comes in handy.
Out in Oklahoma in building a clubhouse, Lock Sanders post, No. 59, of the Legion has decided that it will borrow the plans of the Y. W. C. A. hostess house. In camps and overseas it met such a need that now, back in their home town, Hugo, Okla., the boys are building one for themselves. So interested has the whole town become in the scheme that everyone is helping. Citizens are buying boards at one dollar apiece and painters and carpenters are donating a day's work. The plot has been given by the city. The structure will contain an auditorium with a seating capacity of 200, a reading and writing room and an office, all on familiar lines.To meet the demands, the national board, Y. W. C. A., 600 Lexington avenue, New York city, offers to share with other Legion posts or communities a plan for a delightful clubhouse.
Pictures are available.—Exchange.

The Garden Plot.

The range of choice in the location of a city garden must necessarily be somewhat limited. Good drainage, sunshine and a suitable soil should be kept in mind in selecting a site for the garden. Where fowls and stray stock are likely to interfere ample protection must be provided by a good fence—a problem that must be carefully considered especially in the cultivation of vacant lots. If the soil is poor or very heavy, well rotted stable manure will help correct these conditions. Commercial fertilizers may also be used to furnish plant food where the soil lacks in the necessary elements.

Material for Stone House.

The stone house is very adaptable to all those regions where this material can be secured from the excavation of the cellar or from some neighboring road improvement. Sometimes an old stone wall serves as a source of supply. Because of the native character of this material it will always be in harmony with the landscape.

A Bad Night.

"I worked hard for this money," said the lone pedestrian.
"So did I," growled the footpad.
"I've been standing around here for two hours in the rain waiting for a boob like you to come along. There's no telling what the missus will say to me when she finds out I've got my feet wet."—Birmingham Age Herald.AMONG NEWEST ARRIVALS FOR THE VACATION SEASONIN WHATEVER direction vacation time calls, to whatever part of the country it leads, the tourist, on diversion bent, is sure to need a sport suit.
These smart clothes, for all sorts of outdooring, prove themselves the most adaptable of all apparel. They have an informal and a pastime flavor that exactly suits vacation time.
One is well enough dressed in them, and not too much dressed in them, for all the sorts of places that travelers visit.The newest arrivals in pastime clothes are those suits, or one-piece dresses, of knitted wool or silk. The wool ones are very sturdy and well suited to real sport wear. Those of silk have the same smartness, but are not designed for exactly the same uses; they are well described as out-dooring clothes. A chic suit of this character is pictured here. The plaided skirt is made of a white wool woven fabric, and the overblouse of knittedsilk or silk jersey cloth. The blouse is finished at the bottom with a turned-up cuff, widened at the side into a scallop. It is hemmed down with heavy silk floss in running stitches and contrasting color, which is also used for the embroidery on the bottom of the blouse and about the opening at the front. Cuffs of satin finish the elbow sleeves, and the same material makes the rolled collar and vestee.Short box-coats in high colors and made of the same materials as this blouse are found in the company of striped skirts. The skirts repeat the color in the coat, alternating it with white, and are either side or boxplaited. White hats and white shoes are sure to look well with these suits.
Loosely knitted, yarn sweater-coats in white are great favorites, to be worn with plaided skirts in white and colored plaits.WIDE-BRIMMED, TRANSPARENT HATS ONE OF THE FAVORITESTHE most beautiful of all millinery sings its swan song in August and adds a regret for the passing of the season that brings it in. Made for the warmest days, the airy hats of midsummer vanish like a morning mist, as soon as the first hint of chill comes in September breezes; they only flourish in the balmy air and brightest sunshine; their career is brief but glorious.Five of these dreams of summer, expressed in terms of millinery fabrics and trimmings, are shown in the group pictured here. The well-beloved, wide-brimmed, transparent hat at the top is a perennial favorite, one of the good things that every summer brings, developed in accordance with the season's styles. It is shown made of black malines on a shape that is widened at the sides by pointed curves in the generous brim. The brim is bordered with black piping braid, the crown is a soft puff of malines, and for trimming there is a wide bow, posed toward the right side and spread across the front. Always there are these peerless, picturesque black hats for midsummer. This year they have rivals in hats of brown malines or lace.Below at the left a hat of pale pink georgette has a soft round crown, wreathed with seeded grasses and small garden roses, that look like the heart of summer. Next a stately hat chooses black and white hair braid for its graceful body and white georgette poppies, with long, black ostrich feathers floating out between them, for covering its soft round crown. This is a lovely hat for matrons. Another hat for them appears at a left of the group; it is a small shape of white hair braid with a wreath of garden flowers, berries, foliage and grasses laid about the narrow drooping brim.
They are veiled in the manner of a veil from the sides and back. The poke shape of pale pink georgette, at the right, is distinctly youthful with a snash of blue velvet ribbon that makes a fine background for poppies, corn flowers, grasses and little blossoms posed against it.

COULD BEAT HANDS
SHUCKING HIS CORNAt Least J. A. White Would Bet So, After Being Relieved of Dyspepsia by Tanlac."My wife and myself have had stomach trouble," says Mr. J. A.
White, residing on the Leestown Pike, R. F. D. No. 6, near Lexington, Ky., "and have both been nervous and run down.""We could not see anything without suffering afterwards and could not sleep at night. We were regular nervous dyspeptics. We tried many remedies without permanent benefit until we heard of Tanlac. I got this medicine and began using it. We noticed immediate results. We are both greatly improved by Tanlac. We give all credit for the change of health to Tanlac. It is a remarkable medicine.""I personally feel so good that I told my hands a day or two ago that I could beat any of them shucking corn.
I meant it and believe I could have beat 'em all."Of all the maladies that afflict humanity chronic dyspepsia, such as Mr. and Mrs. White suffered from, is probably the most prevalent, and hours might be consumed in describing the sufferings, mental and bodily, of the victims of chronic dyspepsia.A morbid, unreal, whimsical and melancholy condition of the mind, aside from the nervous physical suffering, is the usual state of the average dyspeptic, and life seems scarcely worth living.Tanlac, the celebrated medicine, was designed especially for overcoming this distressing condition and millions of people have taken it with the most astonishing and gratifying results. It seems to go straight to the spot, toning up and invigorating every organ of the body.Sold by leading druggists every-

A Pernicious Influence.

Frederick had discovered "Treasure Island" the other day, and devoured it in one blissful feast, lasting from breakfast till bedtime, when he was forcibly tried loose from the book.He was obviously in a trance as he undressed, but still his demure mamma was not exactly prepared for the variation which he sprang when he came to say his prayers:"Give us this day our daily bread—so, ho, ho, and a bottle of rum!"—

With a Provise.

One Saturday recently a friend of mine served her husband and two small sons a hearty hot dinner at 1 o'clock.When supper time came she said to the boys: "I am not going to bother much with supper. I shall have something light and airy."The young boy, Clarke, who has a healthy appetite, immediately said:
"That light and airy stuff is all right, mother, if you have lots of it."—Ex-
