Beat Old Man Winter To It!

You've got the jump on him. He isn't quite here yet and you have time to tighten your defenses.

First, there's the house to be made cozy and warm. How about the floors? That's where protection counts. A good, tight floor will save many times its weight in coal.

Then the barn. What can be done to make it safer and more comfortable for the stock? Put new shingles on your roofs to keep out the rain and snow.

Money Well Invested

These little repairs made home life more cheerful and they protect stock and machinery.

Our sales manager is always glad to assist a customer in planning repairs along the most practical lines.
