

The Owyhee Wave

Supplement to the Gate City Journal, Nyssa, Or., Oct. 21, 1921.

Fred Hilson, a young man well known in this community, died Sunday night following an operation for appendicitis, at the Caldwell hospital.

Mr. and T. M. Lowe and Mrs. John Wall and children, Kenneth and John were guests at the Kingman-Otis wedding in the Kolony Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Benton and family visited at the DeBord home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klingback and baby, Denis, were business visitors in Ontario Monday. T. M. Lowe accompanied them as far as the Gate City.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaylor have recently had a telephone put in.

Mrs. C. E. Schweizer and Mrs. Lillian Dav's attended the Institute at Vale this week.

Mrs. C. E. Schweizer was a guest of Miss Sula Thompson of Ontario, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rader who have been employed on the Jack McConnell ranch moved to Nyssa Monday, the ranch having been rented for the coming year by J. C. Kyger and son Lynn and Lu DeGolde. The family will soon take possession. Mr. and Mrs. Rader intend going to the homestead at Riverside soon.

Miss Gladys McGinnis was an overnight guest of Anna Schweizer Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith and son Leonard were guests to dinner at the Walter Pinkston home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Glascock and family visited at the Newbill home near Ontario Wednesday, bringing home with them their little daughters, Viola and Thelma, who had been visiting there.

John Bigelow ate dinner at the S. D. Bigelow home Monday. He took a load of turnips 'n town from the Bigelow ranch. Bigelows also have some fine head lettuce almost ready for market.

R. R. Overstreet and son, Robert, visited their Owyhee ranch Tuesday.

It is reported that Jack McConnell and Biggs & Dunaway have sold their hay.

J. P. McGinnis and sons, Alvin, Willie and Donald and Henry Shippey, who went bear hunting to Logan Valley, returned Tuesday, via the John Day country, over the new highway which they say is a fine road. Sad to say, they found no bear nor deer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ford of Caldwell, were guests at the Alvin McGinnis home Sunday.

Jesse Cantrell and son, Archie, and Cecil Smith returned Monday from a short visit in Long Valley.

Mrs. F. L. DeBord and daughter, Mildred, gave a party in honor of the 7th birthday of her daughter, Florence. Children present were: John and Alice Glascock, Emma and Viola Glascock, Kenneth McDonald, Gerald and Florence DeBord.

Roy James, of Nyssa, was a guest of his cousin, Rollo Fenn, this week.

F. L. DeBord shipped some wheat from Adrian this week, being a member of the Northwest Grain Growers Association. Fred Klingback helped with the hauling.

Louis DeBord came down from his homestead at Ironside Tuesday.

Warren Fenn and Louis are hauling a few loads of willow poles from the Smith ranch.

Word from Mrs. A. E. Rust nd family, of Melba, states that they are majoring in potatoes this year, having had 30 acres, and still have two car loads of good seed to sell. Mr. Rust is building a large cellar for late potatoes. John Rust has sold his Melba ranch and will go east this winter to feed sheep, tho' he is intending to run his Owyhee ranch next year. Mrs. Rust also states that her sister, who will be remembered here as Echo Ellis, is married and living in Marshfield. Considering the hard times everywhere, the Rusts are doing well on their ranch and expect to have it paid for soon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Snyder are the parents of an 8 pound daughter, born Monday, October 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Friar and Donald Beebe left Wednesday for an overland trip by Ford for their old home in Dallas, Or.