SEES NEED OF "CITY BOOK"

Writer Points Out How Information of Great Value to Community Could Be Spread.

What are the "points" of cities? How shall we compare one with another, and, allowing for geographic, climatic and economic limitations, describe the curve of possible ascent for the one we love best?

Vaguely we recognize these types in our common reference to a "factory town," a "mining town" or a "county seat" and so on.

We need a little book on "What is a City?" It should be a cheap little book that everybody can understand.

Suppose we live, as so many of us do, in an ordinary, medium-sized town.

These are not placed in any dogmatic order of importance, or arranged with great care.

A "pattern town" should be described regarding the income that should be derived from legitimate taxation of its number of citizens.

Paris Returns to Long Skirt

There has been much speculation regarding the styles of evening dresses that will be worn during the coming winter.

The talk about long skirts, asserts a fashion correspondent, has grown to be more than a rumor.

All of the conjecture regarding the beauty of the new styles in evening dresses is being verified daily by the appearance of lovely new models from the hands of the great artist dress-makers of Paris.

While no one can deny the continued vogue of black—which fad, starting for daytime wear, finished by absorbing evening costumes as well—one is happy to note that at the most recent social affairs gay splashes of color are beginning to appear.

The many colorful balls given as benefits for various charitable works throughout the season in Paris afforded occasions upon which these dazzling new evening dresses could be worn with great effect.

Modern and Classic Notes Combined.

In addition to their beautiful colors the strikingly new note is the length of the evening dress.

Every model that is smart and new is long. One might say very long, touching the heels, though never so completely long but that the wearer's ankles are revealed through openings or transparencies.

The modern and the classic join in these dresses—Greek, Egyptian and striking up-to-date Parisian ideas are combined.

An Idaho Case. J. C. Welton, hat maker, Montana St. and Third Ave., Gooding, Idaho, says: "I caught a heavy cold and it settled on my kidneys. I suffered with a dull backache and my back was stiff and sore. The kidneys secretions passed too frequently and were highly colored. HOW WOMEN AVOID SURGICAL OPERATIONS

Some Are Extremely Necessary, Others May Not Be

Every Woman Should Give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Trial First

Chicago, Ill.—"I was in bed with a female trouble and inflammation and had four doctors but none of them did me any good. They all said I would have to have an operation. A druggist's wife told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took 22 bottles, never missing a dose and at the end of that time I was perfectly well. I have never had occasion to take it again as I have been so well. I have a six room flat and do all my work. My two sisters are taking the Compound upon my recommendation and you may publish my letter. It is the gospel truth and I will write to any one who wants a personal letter."—Mrs. E. H. HAYDOCK, 6824 St. Lawrence Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Burlington, Vt.—"I suffered with female trouble, and had a number of doctors who said that I would never be any better until I had an operation. I was so bad I could hardly walk across the floor and could not do a thing. My sister-in-law induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it certainly has helped me wonderfully. I keep house and do my work and have a small child. I have recommended Vegetable Compound to a number of my friends and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. H. R. SHARON, Apple Tree Point Farm, Burlington, Vt.

In hospitals are many women who are there for surgical operations, and there is nothing a woman dreads more than the thought of an operation, and the long recovery and restoration to strength if it is successful.

It is very true that female troubles may through neglect reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but most of the common ailments of women are not the surgical ones; they are not caused by serious displacements, tumors or growths, although the symptoms may appear the same.

When disturbing ailments first appear take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present distress and prevent more serious troubles. In fact, many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been advised by attending physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.
