Arcadia Represented at Lettuce Growers Meet

ARCADIA, January 12.—Those from here who attended the lettuce growers meeting at Oldwe Friday and Saturday were Ed Wolfe, Earl Quinby, Chet Lackey. Several in the community are planning to put out a small acreage in head lettuce this year, after early potatoes are harvested, providing they can make arrangements to keep the water in the ditch until November first.

Garrett Smith, with the assistance of Hart King, moved a house Monday from the Sorenson homestead near here to his ranch on the Boulevard. He intends to use it for a tenant house.

Those from here who attended the Shoestring Ditch meeting at Ontario Monday, were C. W. Barrett, Ed Wolfe, Earl Quinby and J. G. Matheny. The old officers were re-elected for the year.

Mrs. Ora Steele and little daughter, of Caldwell, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Frank Edwards.

Mrs. Dorco Dearborn and niece, Esie Poole, Arcadia teachers, were visiting Mrs. Clarence Barrett Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hon are visiting indefinitely at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards.

The teachers, with the help of the older girls, began serving hot lunches to the children Monday.

Rev. Chas. Blom, Baptist minister of Ontario, filled his regular appointment her Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Binnall have gone to Ogden, Utah for a month's visit with Mrs. Binnall's sister and family, Mrs. Alma Smith.

Interesting News Notes Reported From Adrian

People of this community were much saddened to hear that Grandpa Johnston passed away at his home at three o'clock Friday afternoon. Mr. Johnston was a man whom everyone highly respected. He has been ill for the past three years. He is survived by a wife and eleven children who greatly mourn their loss.

Funeral services were held from the home of the deceased at 10 o'clock.

Build Your Own Home This Year

What will you have at the close of 1922—a dozen worthless rent receipts or a home of your own? Will you continue to contribute to the profiteering landlord or will you feel the joy of independence?

1922 will be a great year of home building in America. The home spirit that was more or less demoralized as a result of the war, will be restored.

Take Advantage of Our Free Service to Builders

Thousands of families in the intermountain west are sheltered by comfortable, cheerful homes that were planned by B. P. Architects. This service, which includes complete plans, specifications and a list of materials is offered to you absolutely FREE. Whether you are planning a very small home or a magnificent large one, you will find this service very helpful and profitable.

The Boise Payette Yard Manager nearest you will be glad to go into details with you at any time. Our architects are not so busy now as they will be later, so it is advisable to start planning now, before the building rush begins.
