AU REVOIR

It is with regret that I am leaving Nyssa and I hope to some day return. Since coming to the Snake River Valley in the fall of 1912, spending most of my time in the newspaper field tributary to Nyssa, Ontario and Vale, I have learned to love the country and all its people. I am not leaving with the idea of never returning but with the hope that in a very few years Nyssa will come to a growth which will cause the establishment of a daily newspaper and that I may be the man who will be its publisher.

Subservience To Public Opinion, and Indifference Discussed

Let us go a bit further with the home-buying and home-manufacturing thought. The unfairness of the individual to patronize out of town merchants or the unfairness of home merchants to import supplies from distant markets is a guiding thought but not the final thought.

conditions getting us deeper into a form of slavery (bondage) that automatically deprives us of comforts, recreations and advantages, the things that are the ultimate and satisfying results of our labor? What do we mean by this? We mean that we are so accustomed to letting the other fellow dictate to us, that we have become more or less victims of exploitations, especially from the commercial standpoint.

you of the comforts, recreations and advantages and bind you as a slave to your work. This consequential indifference and lassitude is the BIG CURSE; a seemingly sworn allegiance, to deprive your families of the larger things of life so that a crafty few may have an over-indulgence in the larger things of life.

much larger fee than we received at first? To utilize some products at home would mean a larger return to producer, more encouragement to producer, more wealth in community, new industries developed and better homes.
