Marriage Ends Romance.

After being separated a year, following a married life of 14 years, Mr. and Mrs. Archie W. Fields of this city have been reunited in marriage and thus a happy romance has been enacted. The marriage took place at the home of Mr. Field's brother, J. R. Fields of Boise, on April 5, the ceremony being performed by rev. G. William Barnum, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Fields were first married at John Day, Oregon, in 1908. There are three children from the union. Last year they were divorced on common grounds. Community Church Notes.

We need more teachers in the Sunday schools. Each Sunday morning finds us striving to perfect an organization for the strengthening and upbuilding of religious education in the life of the young folks. To this end we need both men and women who will dedicate themselves to this important work. Come and help us and bring the children.

We shall be very grateful to folks who have flowers if they would loan them to the church for the morning and evening services.

The subject for the morning service will be, "Where. When and What Is the Kingdom of God?" Special music.

The evening song service and sermon at 6:45, at which time we hope to have echo singing of the song entitled "The Sinner and the Son." A cordial welcome to all.

Remember the Young People's meeting at 6:45. A live meeting for the young folks.

HOW OLD IS CHRISTIANITY?

The speaker at the Open Forum service next Wednesday evening at the church will be Rev. A. B. Weaver and he will speak on the subject "Christianity 7000 Years Old." Mr. Weaver is the pastor of the Methodist church at Vale, a student and man of research of Bible teachings. It will be well worth your time to hear Mr. Weaver on this subject.

to Apple Valley... bats with the team of that place. The game was fast and furious and resulted in a score of 16 to 17, the Apple Valleyites having the long end of the score. Those taking part in the game were: George Reberger, captain; Max Dunnaway, Wayne Lowe, Hershel Thompson, Ray Garrison, John Ray, Dale Garrison, Wallace Goodrich, Earl Schweizer, James Crockett, Delbert Sooter.

Lyceum Course

Miss Helen Loughary, representing the Ellison-White Lyceum Co., with headquarters at Portland, is in Nyssa this week arranging for a lyceum course to be given here during the winter season. In spite of having encountered a number of "hard-boiled" citizens Miss Loughary feels confident of triumphantly "putting it over," and as she is a very persistent young lady we are inclined to agree with her. Miss Loughary is a former schoolmate of Miss Lulu Davis and is enjoying a pleasant visit at the Davis home while here.
