Born—To Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Sarazin, on Friday, April 20, a boy.

Pursuant to call of Mayor Warren the city council met in special session Monday evening and considered a number of matters of importance. Cleanup week was set for the seven days beginning Monday, April 23, and ending Monday, April 30. During this period property owners will be required to clean up their premises and have the garbage hauled away at their own expense.

The matter of providing an auto park was considered and it was decided to have a temporary park at the pumping plant. The buildings and equipment will be moved from last year's coming place across the railroad track and placed in position at the new location and the city will furnish free water, light and camp grounds. President Hamaker and Vice president Eder of the Commercial Club were present and on behalf of the club agreed to furnish a risk of wood for the campers and to pay the cost of moving the equipment. It was also decided to buy a block of land adjoining the baseball park for a permanent park. This will be paid for by popular subscription, about half of which was subscribed at the meeting.

On complaint of A. R. McCarty the matter of declaring the George Phillips feed corral a nuisance was considered and taken under advisement until the next regular meeting May 7.

Grandma's Birthday

Dr. Sabina Leach, familiarly known as "Grandma," celebrated her 78th birthday anniversary Saturday evening at the Star Hotel, where she has apartments.
