Wedding Bells

(Contributed)

A very pretty home wedding was held at 9 o'clock Tuesday evening, June 12, 1923, when the marriage of Lillian Lawrence to Oscar J. Pinkston was solemnized at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. W. W. Smith, of Kingman Colony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Knight of the M. E. church of Wilder.

The beautiful ring ceremony was used. While music played softly the ring was brought in by a little fairy in pink and white in the heart of a large flower.

The bride was lovely beyond words. She wore a bridal dress of white crepe de chine trimmed with beautiful pearls while roses of rare color nestled in her dark hair.

The ceremony was performed under a large arch of June roses and trailing vines, while the rooms were tastefully decorated in pink and white. The wedding party consisted of those near of kin, Rev. Knight, Rev. and Mrs. Williams, W. H. Pinkston and family, Mr. McGinnis and family, Mrs. J. S. Pinkston, Mr. Alvin McGinnis and family, Mr. W. W. Smith and family, Cleadis Lawrence, Archie and Perry Cantrell, Orville Kelso, Mr. Claude Smith and family and Marie Wilson.

Dainty refreshments were served of ice cream and cake by the hostess, Mrs. W. W. Smith.

Lillian is one of our best and most highly respected ladies of the community. She formerly came from Ohio. Mr. Pinkston is one of our best liked men and is very active in religious and social work. He is industrious and steady and is a favorite among his many friends. They will make their home on their farm in the Oregon Trail district. They have the good wishes of all those who know them.

May your married life be sunshine
That grows brighter day by day.
May bluebirds ever float o'er you
And lilies and pinks strew your way.

Mrs. J. W. Wills is visiting in Ontario at the home of Mrs. O. D. Cole. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thompson were Boise visitors the fore part of the week.

WHAT IS A CHRISTIAN?

The recent General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America reaffirmed as essential truths that "the Bible is the inerrant Word of God; that Jesus Christ was born of the virgin Mary; that he offered himself as a sacrifice to atone for the sins of his followers; that he arose from the dead with the same body with which he suffered."

The Rev. W. P. Merrill of Brick Presbyterian church, New York, and a large number of other ministers denied point blank the truth of any one these statements. These doubters have, as recent events in other conferences show, a very large following among the apparently enlightened leaders of all the large Protestant bodies.

Can these great preachers deny the fundamental doctrines of Christianity and consistently call themselves Christians?

Is the Rev. William P. Merrill any more of a believer than was the noted infidel Tom Paine?

Does it not appear as if the only bond between many of our noted Christian(?) leaders and real Christianity is their connection with a pay roll—or can it be possible that these so-called Christian ministers are the very people spoken of in the second chapter of Second Thessalonians, "God shall send them strong delusion that they all might be damned who believe not the truth?"

This would seem like a very desirable subject for the Men's Bible class to investigate. The general public would no doubt be quite interested in the result of their study. Without doubt the Gate City Journal would be pleased to give publicity to the result of their deliberations.
