Farewell Party

A surprise farewell reception was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Fleming in honor of Mrs. J. H. Wolf who with her husband will leave Nyssa in a few days for the coast. About 30 of the ladies of Nyssa and vicinity gathered to pay tribute to the character of Mrs. Wolf and show the esteem in which she is held by those who know her best. Each of those present wrote a letter to Mr. and Mrs. Wolf which is not to be opened until after they leave Nyssa. A handsome leather writing case was presented to Mrs. Wolf, Mrs. Fleming making the presentation address. Dainty refreshments were served.

The people of Nyssa and vicinity will deeply regret the loss of Mr. and Mrs. Wolf from the community, where they have been closely identified with the business and social life for the past 16 years. They have both been prominent in church and welfare work and their places will be hard to fill. Mr. Wolf assisted in organizing the Malheur County Bank and was its cashier and director for over 14 years. It was under his management that the bank became known as one of the strongest of the state banks in Oregon.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wolf wish them happiness and success wherever they may locate.

Chapter K. of P. E. O. of Vale motored over to Nyssa for a picnic luncheon at the home Mrs. J. Boydell on Tuesday.

The invitee guests of P. E. O. were Mrs. Dunaway, Mrs. A. H. Boydell and family, Mrs. J. J. Sarazin and family of Nyssa; Mrs. Howard and daughter of Butte, Mont.; Mrs. E. B. Nedry and sons of Tigard, Ore.

A Living Institution

A bank is more than the building it occupies. It is more than the capital and surplus. It is a living institution made so by the men who manage it.

Their character is the bank's character. Their reputation for sagacity, for conservatism, for good judgment becomes the bank's reputation.

The officers of this institution fully realize this fact and are determined to guard the fine reputation which the bank has acquired.
