Fisher's index report shows a drop in prices. We can hear a pin drop but we didn't hear that. Little Rock Arkansas Gazette.

In an industrial controversy, the people never are asked to say how much they would like to be soaked.—Atlanta Constitution.

A magazine writer says we need a new religion. But let's not do any thing rash until we try the old one.— New Britain Herald.

We do not blame Wilhelm for rewriting the Bible. It contains some passages that must worry him considerably.—New Orleans Times-Picayune.

All men are born free and equal but some of them grow up and get married.—Nashville Tennessean.

The book of etiquette doesn't mention it, but it is considered good form to return the book of etiquette you borrow.—Pottsville Journal.

The average man now lives 39 years longer than he did in 1890. He has to in order to get his taxes paid.—Athens (Georgia) News.

Ah, well, when the churches discover they can't successfully compete with the theater, perhaps they will try religion again.—Baltimore Evening Sun.

When the meek inherit the earth they will come into possession of a lot of problems no meek man can handle.
—Eugene Daily Guard.

An Oklahoma bandit talked politics while he robbed a train. We have known the same thing to happen when it was not a train that was being robbed.—Cleveland Times.

"I do not wish to undermine the constitution," says Marquis Estelle, after kicking out the cabinet, sending the cortes (parliament) home, exiling 31 of his political enemies, and constituting himself the head of the Spanish government, thus demonstrating that the Spaniards are not entirely devoid of a sense of humor.—New York Call.

For Sale

The School Board of District No. 39 will sell to the best cash bidder what is known as the "old Warren School House," sealed bids to be filed with the clerk before 8 o'clock Saturday eve, October 13. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids and no bid under $175 will be considered. Signed.

Frank Anderson,
President of the Board.
Mrs. J. B. Smith, Clerk.

Added Percentages.
A 50 per cent increase for an article that costs $1 would make it cost $1.50.
But for the article that has doubled in price the new price is 200 per cent of the old.

After studying the Sparrow.
We spend considerable time observing the English sparrows and studying their character and have about reached the conclusion that, even if that well meaning but misguided British cousin had had sense enough not to bring them over, they would have got here somehow anyway.—Ohio

Young People's Doings

The Girls Reserve met Monday to resume their activities for the winter.
They have planned many interesting events for the winter months. The first one is to be a Mother and Daughter banquet to be given early in November. The fathers are to do the serving so that all mothers will be free to sit at the banquet table. The grade school corps meets immediately after school Monday. The high school corps meets at 7 p. m. same day.

The Junior Boy Scouts will organize next Saturday morning. A meeting is called for all the boys from the ages of nine to 12 Saturday. Meet at the parsonage at 10 o'clock a. m.

The Young People's Society of the community church will go to Parma Sunday evening to visit the Christian Endeavor of the Parma Community church.

The Girls Reserve will have charge of the evening service Sunday evening, October 21. They will give a play entitled, "A Girl Reserve." There will be special music and a short talk by one of the advisors. Watch for complete program and cast of characters in next week's paper.

Leake Entertain- ers Delight Audience

The Leake Entertainers presented a varied number of vocal and instrumental selections, interspersed with humor and novelty stunts, and proved to be more than the Chautauqua claimed. Mr. and Mrs. Leake and a violinist make up the company and each is an artist. Saxophones, Zylphones, whistling, readings and a little of everything else in the novelty line is Mr. Leake's specialty. Mrs.
Leake is a vocalist with a rare quality in her voice and is also a pianist. The violinist, also a saxophonist, did splendid work.—

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

New Sedan

Changes featured in the new Ford Sedan make it a better looking, roomier car.

A higher radiator with a trim apron at its base lends dignity befitting a closed car. The higher hood and enlarged cowl curving gracefully to the dash give a stylish sweep to its body lines, and afford additional leg room for occupants of the front seat.

All body fittings—window regulators, door grips, door latch levers, door lock, dome light—are finished in nickel. The upholstery carries a fine dark line on a soft brown background that does not easily show dust or dirt. Silk window curtains to harmonize for the three rear windows enhance the style of the car and add to the comfort of its passengers. See the new Sedan and other new Ford body styles at our showroom.

These cars can be obtained through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.
