Geo. W. Hayes, prominent lawyer, this week announced his candidacy for the nomination for district attorney on the republican ticket. Mr. Hayes is one of Malheur county's best attorneys. See his announcement on second page.

Nyssa, has a fee simple title in and to said real property and every part thereof, and that its title is good and valid.

That the said defendants, and each thereof, be forever barred and enjoined from claiming or asserting any right, title, claim, interest, estate or equity in and to said real property, or any part thereof, adverse to plaintiffs, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem meet and just and according to equity.

This summons is published and served upon you, and each of you, under and by virtue of, and pursuant to, an order of the Honorable Dalton Biggs, Judge of the Circuit Court in and for the said County of Malheur, which said order was made and entered by said Judge of said Court, on the 22nd day of January, 1924, directing that summons herein by publication for six successive weeks, including seven publications thereof in the Gate City Journal, a weekly newspaper, published at Nyssa, Malheur County, State of Oregon, and having a general circulation therein, and ordering a copy hereof, and a copy of the complaint herein, duly verified as required by law, be forthwith mailed to the said defendants and each thereof, at their last known residence, place of business and postoffice address, or that in lieu thereof, personal service be had upon said defendants, and each thereof, wherever they may be found.

Just two things have made it possible for us to give you this 20% reduction on Tuxedo:

1. A reduction in the cost of Kentucky Burley tobacco and in package materials, as well.
2. The consolidation of three of our big plants into one. (Mr. Ford may not be in the tobacco business but he is right about consolidation.)

You know that it is the desire and policy of The American Tobacco Co. to extend to its customers the maximum of service.

Reducing the price of a great favorite like Tuxedo is our idea of delivering this service.

Tuxedo is always FRESH. Every package is—
