LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

E. M. Blodgett, who is attorney for both the Ward Drainage District and the Owyhee Drainage District, was in Vale Wednesday on legal business pertaining to those districts.

Forty acres of land for rent for crorent one mile north of Adrian by G. O. Smith. See J. Boydell.

The board of directors of the Nyssa-Arcadia Drainage District held a meeting Saturday evening in E. M. Blodgett's office and let a contract to Mr. Puckett of Boise, of the firm of Morrison-Knudsen, for additional construction.

Jacob Groot returned Thursday from a six weeks visit to Holland. He reports that enterprising little country to be in a prosperous condition, due largely to the development of the dairy industry. In Holland a good cow sells readily for $200.

Mrs. Frank Phillips has returned from Grace, Idaho, where she visited friends and relatives.

E. M. Blodgett made a business trip to Adrian Thursday.

Ralph Reberger is home on a visit from Portland, where he is employed as telegraph operator.

Harry Sharp of Nampa was a business visitor in Nyssa Monday.

J. Beck shipped a carload of cattle to the Portland market Friday.

Delno Gibson made a business trip to Ontario Saturday.

Mr. Persell has sold his property across the track to Joe Meyers. Mr. Persell intends leaving for the East in the spring.

Local weather observers were pained to observe the sun shining brightly all day Saturday, the 2nd, commonly known as ground hog day. Sunshine on that day is held to portend six weeks more of winter. Keep tab on the old ground hog this year and see how good or how bad a prophet he will turn out to be.

Absly assisted by a large number of friends, Shanny Tensen spent Sunday in erecting the attennae for a new radio outfit. Though considerable difficulty was experienced in getting the poles up, the work was successfully accomplished and the machine put to working the same evening. The first word received over it told of the death of ex-President Wilson.

Mrs. Hattie Garrett, who has been living at Apple Valley for the past several months, has moved back to town. Mrs. Garrett had a rather unfortunate accident while coming through town with a wagon load of household effects. While straightening out something on the load she slipped and fell to the ground, alighting on her head, and was rendered unconscious for several hours. At last reports the injured lady, though still suffering somewhat from the effects of the fall, was on the road to recovery.

Geo. Schweizer was in Caldwell Thursday having dental work done.

Pete Tensen was elected director for the Nyssa district for the current year at the annual meeting of Idaho Producers' Union, held in Caldwell February 6.

Dallas Duncan is under Dr. Bradford's care, suffering from an attack of lumbago.

Burglars effected an entrance to the Nyssa Pharmacy Tuesday night by breaking the glass in the front door. The miscreants abstracted about ten dollars in cash from the till, but took nothing else so far as known. No clue has so far been discovered that might lead to the capture of the thieves.

Mrs. Green Campbell and Mrs. Mattie Thomason were business visitors in Payette on Tuesday.

Mrs. Conrad Martin of Kingman Colony was a guest at the F. D. Hall home several days this week.

On Wednesday afternoon, February 13, the Social Circle Kensington, O. E. S., will meet at the I. O. O. F. hall, with Mrs. Ethel Crawford and Mrs. Mattie McLellan as hostesses. All members are invited to attend.

At the regular meeting of the East Star Wednesday evening degree work was put on, four new members being initiated into the mysteries of order. After the lodge session a social hour was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. H. M. Housh is spending the week end in Nampa, guest of Mrs. Harry Sharp.

The directors of the Owyhee Irrigation District met Tuesday in the office of E. M. Blodgett, secretary of the district, for the purpose of organizing the board of directors for the ensuing year.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson and daughter Elizabeth spent the week end in Caldwell visiting friends.

Miss Vesta Dicka was a guest of friends in Caldwell last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. A. R. McCarty and sons returned Thursday from Boise, where they had been visiting Mrs. McCarty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Forbes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clore of Weiser spent Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller.

Mrs. J. Hill of Vale is in Nyssa attending her mother, Mrs. Will Vokts, who is ill.

Sidney Burbidge was in Portland over the week end, being in charge of a shipment of hogs. He reports a fairly good market for livestock.

The regular meeting of the Commercial Club will be held next Thursday evening. A return banquet will be given the ladies by the men on this occasion, and the ladies are requested to bring their husbands along. Al Thompson has been appointed head waiter, which insures perfect service. Come out and see the men cover themselves with glory.

Good Lyceum Number

The Lyceum number on Wednesday night drew a good crowd to hear the famous reader and impersonator, Em-a Dee Randall. It is pleasant to hear the general expressions of satisfaction in regard to the high order of entertainment being presented by the Lyceum this winter. The next and last number of the course will be given in the Methodist church next Friday night when the main attraction will be the noted magician, James Kater. Mr. Kater has proved himself able to please large and critical audiences all over the country, so the good people of this community are undoubtedly in for a treat next Friday night.

Husbands Entertained

A most enjoyable time was had last Thursday evening when Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Prettyman entertained with six tables of bridge. Besides the usual members of the bridge club, the husbands were entertained. Additional guests were C. Pepper and J. Ewing. High score prizes were won by John Cancelmo and Mrs. Arthur Boydell while Mr. Ewing and Mrs. Barney Wilson received the consolation prizes. A delicious supper was enjoyed at midnight.

Mrs. Bowles of Emmett and two children are visiting at the Isham Anderson home.

Candidates for Sheriff.

Three more good men and true this week announce their willingness to serve the people of Malheur county in the capacity of sheriff—G. W. Dean, C. W. Glenn and Jeff Froman. They are all well known and prominent citizens of the county and need no eulogies from the Journal. Their works speak for them. The people are fortunate to have such a splendid field to choose from.

The "Honor Roll" was crowded out again this week after we had it all set up in type. It will appear without fail next week.

Jerd Looper returned Monday from a trip to Fruitland.

FOR SHERIFF OF MALHEUR COUNTY.

Herewith I beg to announce my candidacy for the nomination to the office of Sheriff of Malheur county, subject to the will of the Republican voters, at the primaries to be held on the 16th day of May, 1924. I have lived in this county all my life and am acquainted with its affairs and its people. If nominated and elected, I shall do all in my power to uphold the dignity of the office and to fill it with credit to the county, the people and myself.

JEFF FROMAN.
