J. P. Danaway and family motored to Payette Lake Saturday. Mr. Danaway returned to business Monday, leaving the family to enjoy a vacation at that famous summer resort.

Mrs. Harry Newby is in Caldwell keeping house for her son Tom, who is employed in that city.

E. B. Conklin of Cairo was a visitor in town Tuesday. Mr. Conklin has just returned from a trip through the Grand Ronde valley, incidentally taking in the big livestock show at Union. Union county boasts some of the finest stock to be found in the West.

The lower temperatures which we are enjoying these days is attributed to the cool winds blowing off the snow capped mountains which Mess recently painted on the filling station sign board.

E. L. Davis is the new renter in the Brown Bros. bungalow on north Third street. Mr. Davis drives a cream truck for the Payette creamery and has been stationed at Nyssa because of the large number of patrons in this vicinity, it being much more convenient to work from here than from Payette.

While Mrs. Ed Warren was negotiating a car down Main street Monday something evidently went wrong with the steering apparatus, as the machine when in front of the Eder Hardware Co. deliberately turned half way round and ran into the new drinking fountain on the corner. The fountain was completely wrecked and the car suffered some minor injuries.

Miss Nina Moran, county librarian, was in Nyssa Thursday looking after library matters in cooperation with our local librarian, Mrs. F. R. Marshall. Miss Moran has just inaugurated a circulating library system to supplement the local libraries, and as a starter brought along a hundred books, which will be kept here until the public has had an opportunity to read them, when they will be sent on to the next place and a new lot left here.

At Rest

Miss Bertha Grace Walker died Monday, June 9, at the home of her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Felton of this city, at the age of 14 years and 5 months. The remains were interred at Hanson, Ida. Death came after a lingering illness lasting several years. The floral offerings were profuse and very beautiful. On a card appended could have appropriately been appended these words: "These flowers so typical of the life of her we mourn, mutely speak the pathos of a parting word, and are placed upon this casket by friends who loved the sweet sleeper. On these petals are tears for the parting, and hopes for the meeting beyond the gates."

Deceased leaves besides her grandparents a father, Fred Walker, and one sister, Agatha Walker. Her mother died in 1919, since which time she has made her home with her grandparents. The remains were accompanied to Hanson by Mr. Walker and Miss Agatha, where the latter will remain for a time.

Finish Bank Building

Workmen this week put the finishing touches on the exterior of the new Malheur County Bank building. The stucco finish gives the building a very handsome appearance, as well as conveying an impression of rockribbed solidness, scheme quite fitting for this sturdy financial institution. Inside the building is tastefully decorated and thoroughly equipped with all the modern conveniences pertaining to an up to date banking business.

With a large and constantly increasing business, much of it drawn from distances formerly considered beyond Nyssa's range, the Malheur County Bank has gained for itself an enviable position in banking circles, both for financial strength and service to its patrons.

We would consider it a great favor if you will telephone, write or call for any information required regarding rates on fire protection, or any other lines that are mentioned in our regular ad. Unfortunately the undersigned cannot cover the whole district in person, therefore will greatly appreciate any business that may come to us. Thanking all for past favors. J. Boydell, Nyssa, Oregon.

Chiropractors

Drs. Bradford & Bradford, Carver graduates. Consultation and examination free. Ten years successful practice in the state of Oregon. First door west of Bank.
