Children's Day

Children's Day was observed in the Methodist church last Sunday. The playlet "The Magic Ring," given by the pupils of Sunday school, was performed in a most creditable manner, to the great enjoyment of the large audience present. Every part of the program was enjoyable and reflected much credit upon the children and also upon the ladies who had been to such pains to train the youngsters for the event.

Klan Initiates

A large number of local people motored to Payette Monday evening to view the big demonstration staged by the K. K. K. in a field near that city. An enormous crowd was present to witness the event, which for novelty and spectacular effect was a complete success. The knights put on the whole show—brass bands, fiery crosses, fireworks, night gowns and everything. It is reported about 400 new members were initiated.

Oregon Trail

The annual school meeting was held Monday, June 16, in the Oregon Trail school house. Mrs. J. B. Smith was re-elected clerk for one year and Joe Koopman was elected director for three years.
