LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

George Phillips is in the New Madrid coal mine this week looking after his live stock investments.

O. L. Aubol of Mountain Home was in town Wednesday on business.

John Vogts of the Capital News is drumming up business for his paper in town today.

Frank Leuck opened his new blacksmith shop for business Thursday. The sound of the hammer and anvil rang merrily all day long.

Geo. H. Bodfish was in town Monday on his way from Salt Lake to Malheur City. Mr. Bodfish has large mining interests near Malheur which require his attention.

Blas Carter is back at work in the drugstore after spending her vacation with her parents in Boise.

E. M. Blodgett spent Wednesday and Thursday in Boise looking after legal matters for his clients.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McDonald, who have been visiting in this vicinity for the past three weeks, left Friday for their home in Albany, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Ward motored to Boise Wednesday.

Mrs. Albert Gibson of Portland is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald.

Bill McDonald, student at the O. A. C., arrived home this week.

G. L. Stewart of Boise was in town Friday on business matters. Mr. Stewart is a land owner in the Owyhee Drainage district and attended the meeting of the property holders Friday.

E. M. Blodgett was in Vale Monday on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Prettyman left by auto Thursday for Portland, where they will remain for a time while deciding on a future location.

Mrs. S. J. Shogood is spending the week with relatives in Boise.

Mrs. Hartley and daughter and Mrs. Carrie of Midvale visited Sunday at the D. R. Linder home.

Lloyd Linder of Weiser spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Linder.

Brady Fowler opened the threshing season this week and is operating both a threshing machine and a huller in the fields adjacent to Nyssa. Both the clover seed and the grain are making satisfactory returns, although the dry hot weather slightly reduced the wheat yield.

Bernice Martin of Kingman is visiting at the E. M. Blodgett home.

Frank Lynch and family arrived home from Eureka, Utah, Thursday evening, where they have been for the past month. Frank reports things very dull in that section.

W. B. VanDyke and wife of Ontario are visitors in town today.

Mrs. E. M. Blodgett and daughters Anne and Viola, accompanied by Mildred Long and Leona Zittercob, motored to Ontario Saturday.

Ivan E. Oakes of Ontario, chief engineer of the Owyhee Drainage district, attended the meeting of the land owners of the district in town Friday.

Frank Ryder of the printing firm of Ryder Bros., Baker, was in town Tuesday. This firm puts out the best guide book on the Oregon Trail road on the market.

The land owners of the Owyhee Drainage district met Friday in the office of their attorney, E. M. Blodgett.

Dwight Smith has moved into the Pinkston house on north First street, vacated this week by Mrs. Vaughan.

St. Paul's Guild will meet with Mrs. Sarazin Thursday, August 7.

Rev. Ira B. Aldrich, district superintendent, will hold the fourth quarterly conference at the M. E. church Sunday morning, August 8. Preaching services to precede the conference. A good attendance is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Willson are the proud parents of a 7 pound baby girl, born July 31. The new arrival has been named Willma Rhodene.

Miss Margaret Hunt returned this week from Portland, where she had been visiting relatives for a couple of months, and also spent some time at the sea shore.

Tom Adams, who for the past ten years has been employed in the copper smelter at Miami, Arizona, is spending his annual vacation visiting his daughter, Mrs. Hurd of Whitley Bottom, and friends in this vicinity.

G. R. Swan of Horseshoe Bend, owner of the apartment house, has completed purchase of the half block adjoining his property on the north. Mr. Swan is having the apartment completely vacated for the purpose of making extensive improvements. He is also bringing in a carload of new furniture for the apartments. In future the rooms will be rented completely furnished.

Former Nyssaite Killed

Word was received in town Wednesday of the death in Canyon City, Colorado, of Myrice Rutledge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira M. Rutledge, former residents of Nyssa. Death resulted from a train wreck of which we have not received the particulars. The deceased was formerly an employee of the Idaho state highway department.

Surviving him are his parents, his widow and three brothers—Carl of Glenn's Ferry, Hugh and Walter of Boise.

Will Open Bakery

C. Kazee has rented the middle room of the Sharp building and is preparing to open up a bake shop as soon as his machinery arrives. Mr. Kazee comes highly recommended as an expert compounder of the staff of life and will doubtless find a large sale for his product, as much Boise made bread is sold locally.

Dance

The dance on Thursday night in Community Hall proved a very enjoyable event. A large crowd was present, many from surrounding towns, and we are pleased to report that everything was carried out in orderly fashion. The rough stuff which has marred the pleasure of former dances was conspicuous by its absence on this occasion. Music for the event was furnished by Prof. Spies' famous Oregon Trail orchestra.

Garage Sold

Stock taking is in progress at the Service garage today, the business having been purchased by George P. Ward.

The permanent place of business has not been definitely decided upon, but the new firm will be ready for business about September 1. By that time Mr. Ward will have ready a modern equipped garage, in charge of the most capable mechanics of the country to serve the automobile needs of the community.

New Bridge Floor

A new floor will be laid on the Snake river wagon bridge in the near future. County Commissioner G. W. Dean, who had charge of the matter, reports that the contract for supplying the material has been duly let to the lowest bidder for the sum of $2900. This repair is greatly needed, the old floor being in a dilapidated and dangerous condition.
