LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

E. M. Blodgett spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Boise on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kinnaird were visitors at the S. D. Goshert home Monday and Tuesday. The Kinnairds are now located at Mapleton, Or., and had been on a visit to Lewa, stopping off here on the return journey.

Mrs. John Greulich left for Pendleton Wednesday, after spending ten days at the home of her son, C. L. McCoy.

Mrs. R. R. Richardson spent a couple of days in Boise this week visiting relatives.

Dinner guests at the C. F. Miller home on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Lattig and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Trenney and family and Messrs. Wallace and Ray Henry of Fruitland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McCoy and son and Mrs. John Greulich of Pendleton, spent last Sunday in Vale, guests at the Tom Nelson home.

Mrs. Ghas. Thompson and Miss Thelma, who are now living in Ontario, attended the apron social Tuesday evening.

Mrs. M. C. Gorman, who returned from Portland Wednesday, where she has been spending the summer for her health, is seriously ill due to nervous breakdown and bronchitis.

Representatives of Walter A. Bruce & Co., bond dealers of Boise, who purchased the bonds of the Wad Drainage district, were in Nyssa Tuesday looking after the Owyhee Drainage district with a view to purchasing the bonds of that district, which are being put on the market.

E. M. Blodgett attended a meeting at Kingman Thursday evening in the interest of the Owyhee Drainage district. Mr. Blodgett was present in his capacity of attorney for the district.

Misses Lizzie Thompson, Virginia Thompson and Georgia Dennis visited in Ontario Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gibson were in Nampa consulting a specialist in regard to the condition of Mrs. Gibson's eyes.

The Nyssa Paeking Co. shipped a double decked load of hogs to the Portland market Tuesday.

Jack McConnell was in from his sheep camp Wednesday, returning the same day and taking with him a big chunk of fresh beef for the delectation of his trusty helpers.

Dr. Sarazin, accompanied by his daughter Harriett, left Tuesday evening for a visit with his father in Superior, Wisconsin.

Mrs. J. Boydell has been laid up for the past week with the flu.

P. J. Gallagher and Ed Frazier, prominent citizens of Ontario, were in town Tuesday on business.

Miss Moran, county librarian of Ontario, attended the apron social Tuesday.

Apron Social

A jolly crowd to the number of about 150 attended the apron social at the public library room Tuesday evening. The merry-makers began arriving at 7:30 and as fast as they stepped into the room were grabbed by some member of the reception committee and measured around the waist to determine the amount the victim would be charged for supper, one cent per inch being the standard price. Dancing and other forms of merrymaking were indulged in and at 10 o'clock a delicious lunch was served cafeteria style.

Mrs. Artie Robertson collected the most beans and was handed a beautifully wrapped package, which upon being unwrapped disclosed a magnificent turnip. Mr. Crocker with his violin and Mrs. Stubbs at the piano furnished music for the occasion. The proceeds of the evening will be used for the benefit of the public library.

Buy's Paeking Plant

The Nyssa Fruitgrowers Association, a corporation which for several years has operated here, has been dissolved and the business, paeking house and equipment sold to C. C. Hunt, who is now sole owner. Mr. Hunt will continue to operate the plant, and will at all times be prepared to handle farm products of all kinds, using the most approved and up to date methods in grading and paeking the various fruits and vegetables in the manner calculated to bring the highest price on the market.

Masquerade Party

A masquerade was held November 14 at the home of Bernice Vorhies, assisted by Mary and Agnes Swan. After the guests had arrived games were played. Two features of the evening were marshmallow and popcorn ball races, both creating much excitement. CARS WASHED

L. E. Blodgett, Prop.

Appointed Ford Agent

C. M. Tensen has been appointed local agent for the Ford Motor Co. and has just unloaded his first carload of Fords. Having rented his filling station, Mr. Tensen will henceforth be found at the Red Front garage, where he will at all times have on hand a full line of Ford products, from touring cars to tractors, and everything in between. Those desiring to trade in their old Ford on a new one can always get a trade out of Skinny and he promises to allow you every cent your old boat is worth. Try your local dealer first, before going out of town to fare worse.

New Members Inducted

A party of 25 or 30 members of the Ontario lodge of Odd Fellows paid the local brethren a fraternal visit Tuesday evening and assisted in the induction of several new members into the local lodge. The degree work was put on by the visitors to the complete satisfaction of everyone concerned. The ceremonies were followed by a big feed and general good time, which lasted well into the night.

Candy Pull

An old fashioned candy pull was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ewing on Friday, November 14. A jolly evening was spent playing games of various kinds. Those present were: Jeff Irwin, Coy Williams, Elsie Neal.
