of the Owyhee district was held in the office of the secretary, E. M. Blodgett, Tuesday. J. J. Sarazin was elected president of the board for the ensuing year. S. D. Goshert took his seat in place of the retiring member, T. W.
Claggett. The third member of the board is R. J. Davis.

The Tenson Motor Co. sold another Ford car this week to the Idaho Power Co., to be delivered in Payette.

S. D. Goshert, E. M. Blodgett and B. G. Fewler signed up for electric lights this week to be delivered to their ranches in the outskirts of town.
Service will be ready March 1.

G. M. Miller, local agent for the Idaho Power Co., attended a banquet and business meeting in Payette Tuesday evening.

Mrs. S. W. Kaylow and children of Owyhee moved into the Fred Woods residence this week so the children can attend school here.

Mrs. Zana Rambaud had her house wired up for electric lights this week.
Miss Vesta Dick spent last week end in Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Smith were Payette visitors on Tuesday.

The Odd Fellows are planning a big dance on Friday, the 10th inst. We strongly advise you to be present if a good time is what you are looking for.

The local girls basket ball team went to Payette for a game and was once more defeated.

Miss Bliss Carter is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Diven.

ply from pure Jersey cows, T. E. tested.

The A. R. McCarty family returned Sunday from visiting with relatives in Boise.

G. B. Bertsch is going about on crutches on account of a sprained ankle. The injury was caused by slipping on an icy walk.

"Let George do it." What? Deliver you a quart or two of milk either morning or evening. City Dairy.

District clerk of Blaine was in Wednesday and Thursday in Vale in attendance at the regular annual meeting of the county court.

W. B. Lees, prominent Ontario attorney, was in town Wednesday on business.

P. M. Warren and Cliff Tillman were in Vale Thursday on business.

Suffering from an attack of flu, Larry Hamaker has been confined to his home all week.

parents of a baby boy, born Sunday, February 1.

W. B. Hoxie was a visitor to the county seat Wednesday. Some nervousness was being felt in Vale on account of prospective high water. An ice jam against the Butty creek railroad bridge has the structure out of alignment so that trains cannot cross it. Trains on each side run to the bridge, where passengers and express are exchanged.

Rev. I. Q. Wood and Mr. Pinney of Ontario were in town Tuesday in the interests of the American Legion.

itor in Vale Thursday.

Testing Cows

A veterinary working under the state board has been testing dairy cows in this vicinity for tuberculosis.
Very little disease has been found, the Missus inspection having pretty nearly eliminated the disease in suspected herds. It is expected that inspection will soon be made compulsory in all dairy herds.

"Take My Advice"

Coming soon; by local talent. A comedy, and a good one. Watch for later notices. 'Twill be the best show of the season.

For Sale

300 tons alfalfa hay, water and good feedin', ground, 1 1/2 miles north of adrian. Chas. Blust, Nyssa, Oregon.

A Good Cold Remedy.

Take a fair sized onion—a good strong one—and let it simmer in a quart of hokey for several hours, after which strain and take a teaspoonful frequently. It eases the cough wonderfully.

GOOD Kitchen LIGHT PREVENTS ACCIDENTS

WHEN you are in a hurry—how easy it is to make a mistake with sharp knife or can opener! And how painful and inconvenient are the results!

Good light—no shadows cast in your way as you work—does a great deal to prevent such annoying accidents.

Daylight YOUR KITCHEN

The New Daylight Kitchen Light hangs at just the right height so that it casts no objectionable shadows, but floods the entire room with light and enables you to work at the sink, the range, or the table without casting your own shadow on your work.
It is a beautiful fixture—all white.
