Owyhee

The Owyhee river broke up Thursday night and Friday. A big ice jam formed below the Over-treat ranch, reaching for about a mile and diverting the current to the old channel back of the Puller Schweizer ranches for awhile, but finally went out without perceptible damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klingback entertained the O. K. K. members and their families at an oyster supper Friday evening. The "Lemons and Prunes" had a battle royal, the prunes coming out victors and winning a prize of a beautiful basket of homemade candy.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott returned home Friday from Las Animas, Colo., where they spent the winter visiting their daughters Nellie and Rada, who are attending high school there, their parents and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kaylor have a new Ford. Mrs. Kaylor and the children are moving to Nyssa for awhile till the period of bad roads is over, as Robert and Betty are first year high school students there.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McGinnis are the parents of a still born boy. Disappointed at the loss of their little one they are contemplating the adoption of an orphan baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvon McGinnis moved Friday to the Mendiola ranch, where Mr. McGinnis has work.

H. L. MacLafferty received a telegram Monday stating that Mrs. MacLafferty, who left last Thursday for Portland, was operated on Sunday morning and was resting well. Her daughter, Miss Bonnie, was with her.

Mrs. T. M. Lowe visited the school Thursday, and at the request of the teacher, Mr. MacLafferty, spoke to the eighth grade students, telling them personal experiences and reminiscences of her parents and grandparents who lived in "bleeding Kansas" when the Missouri Compromise went into effect and it was left to Kansas, then a very new state, to vote herself slave or free.

Mrs. Viva Caywood returned Sunday from a brief visit with her parents in Nampa and will help Mrs. Ose Schweizer for awhile.

John Reese sold his band of ewes to a Salt Lake man, $10.80 per head being the price received.

Lou DeGoede has been enjoying(?) a siege of toothache lately. He went to a dentist in Ontario and had the offending member removed.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klingback and family were dinner guests in the Larsen home Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Glascock has been quite ill for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hite, Mrs. W. W. Smith, Oscar Pinkston and Perry Cantrell motored to Boise Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fenn were in Nyssa Monday. Word from their son Leaud says he is now convalescing from his recent severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Evans and family and Mrs. Ed Hennis were weekend visitors in Nampa, returning Sunday evening. Mr. Evans remained at Nampa to see about locating seed potatoes. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hennis came up with them for a short visit.

Miss Gladys McGinnis and her cousin, Archie Gault, spent the week-end in the John Hite home.

Wm. Glenn is circulating a petition to have himself appointed as road supervisor.

Maurice Browning was a week-end guest of the Hite boys.

W. H. Puckett, drain contractor, and two helpers ate dinner at Peutz' Saturday. The dredge arrived Monday and work will commence on the Owyhee drain immediately. Plans to be tapped by the ditch are Stewart's, Fisher's Peutz' and Reese's.

Local Boy Constructs Broadcasting Station

From a Pocatello paper we take the following concerning a well known local boy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. MacLafferty of this city: "Sending a musical program which was received by local radio fans on a short meter length from his home at 754 West Sublett street last night, Loren MacLafferty, machinist in the O. S. L. machine shops in this city, has the honor of constructing the first real broadcasting set in the Gate City which he erected for experimental purposes."

"Costing in materials but $11.50 and built in addition from pieces of material picked up from time to time, the local man has accomplished wonderful results from this small expenditure."

"He has been working in conjunction with other young men of the city and his program last night was sent for the purpose of communicating with James Brady and James Mitchell, while many others received the program."

There is considerable more of the story as published in the Pocatello paper but lack of space prevents our giving it in full.
