Owyhee

The local P. T. A. held their regular meeting at the school house Friday afternoon with a good attendance. Senator Eddy's bill limiting elective courses in high school in order to provide for a more thorough grounding in practical fundamentals, such as penmanship, spelling, etc., was spiritedly discussed.

Several families interested in resuming Sunday school after its winter's suspension met at the school house Sunday afternoon. It was decided to announce that election of officers will be held at the school house at 1:30 p. m. on Sunday, February 22. All interested in having Sunday school resumed are urged to be present, to participate in the election and in setting the hour of meeting regularly, etc. Everyone is requested to help see that all the community hear of it.

Mrs. Ada Schweizer was quite painfully injured last week in a runaway when she was thrown from a wagon, slightly crushing the bone in her shoulder joint, necessitating carrying her arm in a sling for awhile. Her little daughter Betty, and Miss Viva Caywood were also thrown from the rig, but not severely injured.

Mesdames Thos. Lowe, M. M. Green and M. Judd attended the executive board of County Council of P. T. A. at Ontario Saturday.

The Misses Betty Kaylor, Rowena Glenn and Evelyn DeBord were busy Saturday soliciting subscriptions to the Country Gentleman, competitive subscription teams having been organized in the high school. The winning team is to be treated to a party by the losers. There are to be individual prizes and at the close of the contest all participants are to take part in a novel athletic contest, hence the unwaivered activity of the young people.

The Misses Myrtle Points, Laura Huffman and Georgia Rust and Clarence Rippey attended the play, The Deacon Entangled, presented by Big Bend talent at the Kolony Thursday evening, as did also Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Lowe, Evelyn DeBord, Doris Klingback, Kenneth McDonald and "Curley" Points.

Clyde Benton of Nyssa was an overnight guest of Kenneth McDonald Thursday evening, taking in the play at the Kolony.

H. C. Wahl of Baker visited at Evans' Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schweizer and little daughter were Nyssa visitors Monday.

Evelyn DeBord was obliged to miss school the first of the week on account of illness.

Rudolph Hite was a business visitor in Nampa Saturday.

George W. Benton was a guest at the DeBord home over night Wednesday.

R. R. Overstreet and son Robert have been busy for some time past reducing a lot of the big trees on their Owyhee ranch to logs, posts and firewood.

Mr. and Mrs. Ode Schweizer and family were entertained at dinner in the John Hite home Sunday.

The wind played havoc with E. L. McLafferty's chicken coop the other day, blowing it down and imprisoning chickens under it. None were killed, however.

Mrs. Lareen and Mrs. Albert Larsen visited in the Klingback home Thursday.

Frank DeBord and Fred Klingback were business visitors in the Gate City Friday.

Mr and Mrs. C. F. Smith and daughters, Misses Dorothy and Ruth, of Ontario, and Mrs. George Vogt and children, Chas. and Wilma of Long Beach, Cal., were entertained at dinner in the Evans home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hennis have rented the Ward ranch near Dunaway, near the old Oregon Trail school house and are moving up from Kuna this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klingback and daughters visited at the Carl Fenn home Monday.

Don't forget auto top and curtain work at Nyssa Harness & Saddlery Shop.

Birthday Party

A most enjoyable surprise party was given on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bert Hoxie, the occasion being Mrs. Hoxie's birthday anniversary. About 25 ladies called during the afternoon, which was spent in games and chatting.

Delicious refreshment, brought in baskets by the guests, were very much enjoyed. Mrs. Hoxie was presented with a lovely teaset, a gift of those present.
