Birthday Party

On Wednesday, April 15, a surprise party was given to Grandma Lynch, the occasion being her 81st birthday.

A pretty basket of fruit was presented to her by the following ladies, who were present: Mrs. J. Lynch, Mrs. David Meeker, Mrs. Loveland, Mrs. Minten, Mrs. J. W. Willis, Mrs. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Lynch, Mrs. Harry Newby, Mrs. S. Fenn, Mrs. O. Ferguson.

A birthday cake with candles which Grandma lighted and which was blown out by her caused much fun. Dainty refreshments were served and enjoyed by all present.

Dress Demonstration

The ladies of this community were favored last Saturday with an interesting address and demonstration by Miss Ethel Cooley of the State Extension service. This address dealt with the important subject of dressmaking and women's apparel in general, and the scientific principles underlying the construction of becoming female attire were clearly elucidated by this capable young lady.

Such momentous questions as the correct lines in attire for the different types of femininity, colors and color development, etc., were all thoroughly dissected and their mysteries laid bare to the gaze of the audience.

The attendance was fair despite the heavy rains which fell at intervals all day.

A True Easter Spirit

As a tribute to Mrs. Harry Evans and to her Sunday school class of girls for the true Easter spirit created in the Sunday school, we of the Owyhee community wish to express our deepest appreciation for the beautiful artificial floral decorations and for her presentation of the Easter symbols after the service to each family present.

High Brown Babies Make a Big Hit

A house that was packed from garret to cellar greeted the High Brown Babies when they put on their minstrel show Wednesday evening at the Liberty Theatre.

The consensus of opinion was that they were "some babies."

The program was varied and and full of mirth provokers and anyone who didn't laugh then had just as well stay at home next time, as they are hopeless.

Even Bob Milar was seen to smile when Baxter pulled off his egg-laying stunt. The performers were in negro character and made even better looking negroes than the negroes themselves.

The minstrels were backed up by a chorus of Nyssa's prettiest and most accomplished young ladies who, with the colored lights playing upon them, made a picture that was well worth the price of admission.

The financial end of the event was equally as satisfactory as the entertainment part, about $150 being left after all expenses were paid, which will be used for the support of the band.

The Nyssa public will eagerly await the next band event.
