Owyhee

Easter was celebrated at our little Sunday school with one of the nicest programs they have ever had. The music was exceptionally beautiful and Owyhee is to be congratulated upon the musical ability of the younger people of this community. The program was as follows:

Closing song, "Christ Arose" by congregation, full orchestra led by Mrs. S. Bigelow.

Oscar Pinkston left for his work in Marfield, Wash., Easter morning.
The delegation from Owyhee that attended the County Council, P. T. A., in Big Bend Saturday was one of the largest in the county. Those who went from the Owyhee P. T. A. were Mr. and Mrs. Ose Schweizer, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Peutz, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klingback, Mrs. Ben Kerr, Mrs. Robert Elliott, Mrs. Chas. Fisher, Mrs. John Hite, Mrs. Mary Rust, Mrs. Tom Rust, Miss Mildred DeBord and Mrs. F. L. DeBord, who drove over from Payette for the occasion. All came home feeling that it was a day well spent and of enthusiasm for the future of the P. T. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fenn visited Mr. and Mrs. L. Fenn of Huntington Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hennis drove to Nampa Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cantrill moved into their new house Saturday and entertained Mr. and Mrs. Henry Slippy and family and A. C. Webb Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hite and Cecil Smith spent Easter Sunday at the Ratcliffe home in Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Smith and daughters Ruth and Dorothy spent Easter in Huston, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kygar entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lou DeGoede at dinner Easter.

Miss Margaret Gillis of Portland, our public health nurse, was at the Owyhee school Friday and examined each child and advised each parent of necessary attention.

The girls' class of the Owyhee Sunday school met with their teacher, Mrs. Evans, and practiced their Easter music Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Fischer also spent the evening there and helped with the program.

Orville Bigelow remained home this week to help get some crop in. Orville is always so well up with his studies that his teachers can willingly spare him. John Bigelow went back with Justita and will consult an eye specialist in Boise Tuesday.

Grandma Bradley and Mrs. Robt. Elliott visited Grandma Pinkston Sunday. Mrs. Pinkston is sick in bed with the influenza.

Mrs. John Hite and O. E. MacLafferty and Mrs. Tom Lowe planned and executed a delightful surprise for the school children Friday when they took the children to the Lowe lawn where an egg hunt resulted in dozens of brightly colored eggs being found.

Silas Bigelow was laid up with the flu last week and still feels the effects.

Andy Hansen, who formerly owned the Lou DeGoede ranch, was back Saturday visiting his old friends.

The power men are working on the power line this week and almost all the power pumps will be operating by the 15th of April.

Mrs. F. L. DeBord and daughter Mildred motored over from Payette and spent Saturday and Sunday at the Klingback domicile.

Robt. Elliott found that all his alfalfa had winter killed and has two plows and a tractor going at all hours plowing it up and putting in barley. The Owyhee was very hard hit in this way by last winter's severeness and nearly all the hay is damaged if not entirely ruined.

Merritt Greeling of the University of Idaho at Moscow spent Easter with his parents and Monday night Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Greeling, Miss Lily May Hunt and Robert Overstreet motored to Weiser, where the university Glee Club, of which Merritt is a member, gave a concert. They returned the same evening after the concert.

Miss Verdi Miller spent Easter at Vale.

J. A. Koopman was taken to the Holy Rosary hospital Saturday for treatment of his nerves. Dr. Sarazin said he was some improved Monday.

The Oregon Trail P. T. A. had a fine representation at the county council Saturday. The names of our delegates were Miss Verdi Miller, Mrs. Wm. Beam, Miss Lily May Hunt and Mrs. A. M. Johnston. The rest present were Mrs. J. B. Smith, Mrs. Nellie Newbill, Mrs. Chas. Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Patterson and Mrs. Ata Fry, who was selected county secretary, and all the other officers were re-elected excepting the county vice president. Mrs. Hayworth of the Bend was given this office. There were over 250 who enjoyed the fine chicken dinner prepared by the fine cooks of Big Bend and served on daintily decorated banquet tables. The Easter idea was carried out in an exceptionally beautiful way—little rabbits, chickens and gaily colored eggs were much in evidence and everyone feels that the ladies of Big Bend are to be thanked and praised for their well appointed dinner and cordial hospitality.

Help the Children

Let's do something for the invalid children of Oregon. We've devoted our benevolence in past years to children of foreign lands. Oregon has 1500 children in need of hospital care that cannot be had at present.

The state will possess by January 1 of next year a modern $200,000 hospital for children—a gift from the Doernbecher heirs of Portland. It will be a unit of the University of Oregon medical college in Portland. This magnificent building will stand idle for one year after completion—because of the failure of an appropriation in the last legislature. During that year—1925—some of these 1500 children will die because this hospital will not be in operation. This hospital is a state institution. Laws have been enacted providing for the entry of any Oregon child, poor or rich, upon action by the various county courts.

The American Legion and the Goodfellow department of the Portland telegram are attempting to raise enough to enable the opening on time and operation for one year of this hospital. This is being undertaken at the request and with the cooperation of the hospital guild of Oregon—the supervisory board of the hospital.

If each newspaper subscriber would donate a dollar this sum, $60,000, would be raised in a short time. We hope that every church, lodge, Sunday school class and all other organizations will join this campaign.

The Portland Telegram Goodfellow department will receive any donations, which will be turned into the fund without one cent of overhead expense. It should be sent to "Goodfellow Editors" and marked "Hospital Fund."
HARRY C. FRYE, Goodfellow Editor, Portland Telegram, Portland, Or.
