Owyhee

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klingback entertained at dinner Sunday. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Elliott and Messrs. Carl Rich and Wm. Gruber.

Doris Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Smith, is quarantined with a very light case of smallpox, and Dean and his other daughter are staying with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pinkston and family took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith Sunday.

Frank Newbill and Artie Robertson got five big salmon in the Malheur Saturday night. Carl Finn got three salmon Monday night.

Miss Verdi Miller returned to her home in Vale Saturday, after a very successful year's teaching at the Oregon Trail school. She will teach there again next year, but Miss Lillie May Hunt, the other teacher, will study next year at Monmouth state normal.

Tommy Zest is back from LaGrande and says work is scarce as "hens teeth" there.

A letter from Andrew and Alvon McGinnis says they secured work in the Long Valley timber at good wages.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fisher entertained at what we believe is the very first "honest to goodness" spring fried chicken dinner this year, on Sunday, and had all the fancy fixin's to go with it that the true southern cook (Mrs. Fisher is a Kentuckian) knows just how to prepare. The guests were Mr. Bigelow, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Evans and two children, Misses Viva Caywood and Georgia Rust. Can you beat fried spring chicken May 17?

Miss Juanita Bigelow, the musically gifted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Bigelow, who is a member of the woman's glee club of the College of Idaho at Caldwell, had the honor of participating in the two day music festival given at the college.

Mrs. Charlotte Kygar visited with Miss Myrtle Points Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Walters and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kerr.

Harvey Otis, well known mechanic and electrician of Adrian, is helping Tommy Lowe fix his pumping plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hennis were Nampa shoppers Saturday and drove to Boise Sunday for their annual picnic with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Myers and Mrs. Heath took supper at the William Peutz home one day last week.

Lawyer and Mrs. Bruce Kester and family of Ontario spent Sunday with the Lowe's at a big picnic dinner at Warm Springs ranch up the Owyhee canyon. Mrs. Kester is state vice president of P. T. A. and is also a lawyer of no mean ability, having been admitted to the Oregon bar.

Bill Peutz is impatiently awaiting the arrival of his sister and family, the Jacob Marcuseus, who will sail on the liner "Scotland" from Hamburg, Germany, May 28, and will make their home with Bill until they find a location.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Hite and family took dinner at the J. P. McGinnis home Sunday.

Theo. Rust and mother accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lowe to their home at Thursday and Friday, where the men did the upkeep work and the ladies prepared the sets.

Miss Naomi Evans, who lives with her sister, Mrs. Jackson, at the Desert sheep ranch, spent Sunday with Miss Wanda Hite.

Laura Huffman and Georgia Rust and Myrtle Points took supper at Mrs. Fred Klingback's Saturday evening.

Mrs. John Hite spent the week end with her parents in Ontario.

Misses Nellie and Rada Elliott will leave Las Animas, Col., May 21, en route to the Owyhee in company with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gruber, who will come overland in a truck. They estimate the trip can be made in about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Conrall entertained Mr. and Mrs. Henry Slippey and family at dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Closson, daughter and son motored to Caldwell and attended the dress show and lantern parade Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. U. Keeney returned to their home in Pocatello, Ida., Monday, after a short visit with Mrs. Keeney's brother, J. W. Kygar. Mr. Kygar had not seen his sister for nine years or his brother-in-law for 25 years. Sunday the Kygars entertained at a family party for them. Lou DeGoede and Lynn Kygars spent the day there.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Edison and family moved to Nampa Saturday.

Carl Rich of Las Animas, Colo., is working at the Evans ranch.

Mrs. Lou DeGoede and son spent Saturday night with Mrs. Garrison.

Parma Defeats Nyssa

In the opening game of the Oregon-Idaho baseball league at Parma Sunday the local team went down to defeat at the hands of the fast Parma squad to the tune of 13 to 2. Kenneth Green, the local pitcher, hurled a masterful game, striking out eight of the heavy hitting Parma veterans, and allowing but seven scattered hits, two of which were scratches. But for the errors which the locals, through lack of practice and nervousness, committed there might have been a different story to tell. Packwood, the Parma pitcher, allowed the Nyssaites two straight hits, singles by Robertson and Rambaul.

A slight change in the lineup and some stiff hitting and fielding practice this week will put the local team in shape to give vale, who plays here next Sunday, a run for their money and the fans who witness next Sunday's game have some real thrills in store.

In the other opener of the O. I. league at Vale, Fruitland administered a 13 to 2 drubbing to Vale.

D. W. Gibson in Charge of Contest

In a letter to the Journal D. W. Gibson says: "I have accepted the position as manager of this contest and will say I like the work very much so far."

The contest referred to is an egg laying contest given by the California Farm Bureau and conducted under the auspices of the poultry division of the University of California. The Santa Cruz Sentinel has the following regarding Mr. Gibson's taking charge of the contest: "The management of the contest changed hands during the month. D. W. Gibson takes the place of O. F. Griffin. Mr. Gibson has been in the poultry business in Oregon for eight years as a breeder of utility and show birds of the White Leghorn and Plymouth Rock breeds. He comes highly recommended by the Oregon Agricultural College, as well as the practical dairymen of his state."

According to Delno's report for April, which was published in the Santa Cruz paper, his birds laid around 75 per cent for the month.

"Hand and Seal"

Ancient oriental rulers used thumb impressions on legal documents; hence the expression, "hereto I set my hand and seal." Incidentally this practice led into the modern-day fingerprint identification system.

Nature's Kindness

Asked by her school teacher to describe the backbone, a schoolgirl said: "The backbone is something that holds up the head and ribs and keeps one from having legs clear up to the neck."—Boston Transcript.

Record of Bloodshed

The Council of Blood, a court organized in the Netherlands by the duke of Alva, in 1567, to suppress popular agitation against Philip II of Spain, put to death 1,800 persons in less than three months.

O—WELL—

A young woman having decided that it was just at present the fashionable thing to know all about business and town industries, was being shown through a garter factory.

"Goodness!" she exclaimed, "90,000 pairs in one week! I don't see where they all go."

"Neither do I," replied the young man who was guiding her, coloring slightly.—Holmes Store News.

The Baker's Figures
 A baker was accused of making 50 per cent profit.
 "No," he expostulated; "I only make 1 per cent profit. See here; this costs me one cent! I sell it for two cents! That's 1 per cent profit, isn't it?"
 Fortunately he is now able to make 2 per cent.—Kikeriki, Vienna.

Settling Mother
 He—Tomorrow morning you will meet me at the Cozy cafe.
 She—But supposing mother insists on coming with me?
 He—She won't; I have invited her to meet me at the same time at River restaurant.

ASTOUNDING, VERY

Mr. Overens—A most remarkable coincidence, what?
 Mr. Englebird—What's that?
 Mr. Overens—That your first President and your capital city should have the same identical name.

What to Do?
 Of all the strange things in this world, this is the strangest one; So many things are easier said than ever they are done.

One on the Heckler

Lecturer—Now for a few minutes, ladies and gentlemen, we shall consider the fundamental principles of architecture. The Etruscans—Voice from the Rear—How d'ye build a hoghouse?
 Lecturer (promptly)—Do you contemplate moving, sir?

Very Often

Mrs. Gay—I always agree with my husband.
 Mrs. Gay—Very sweet of you.
 Mrs. Gay—Except, of course, when he is wrong.

AS A GENERAL THING

White—Aggressive people are said to usually have black eyes.
 Green—Or get 'em.

The Stage Improved On

One reason I like the movies—When dead an actor falls He can't reviv amid applause And take six curtain calls.

Who Would?

"See here!" remonstrated the boss sternly. "Smith's office boy doesn't go about his work humming and whistling."
 "You betcher life he doesn't," cheerfully assented the tough kid. "He's th' rottenest crap shooter in th' buildin'."—American Legion Weekly.

Wanted a Tablet

A conversation recently overheard in a modern drug store which deals in many things besides drugs:
 "Gimme a tablet."
 "What kind?"
 "A yellow one."
 "But what's the matter with you?"
 "I want to write a letter."—Everybody's.

Too Honest

Son-in-Law—Say, you have paid me a thousand marks too much!
 Father-in-Law—And this is the idiot to whom I have intrusted my daughter!—Dorffbarber, Berlin.

When They Do, They're Fast

A Portland woman is having a dress made of red, white and blue, because she says that they are colors that were never known to run.—Portland Express.

Men's Faces

All men's faces are true, whatsoever their hands are.—Shakespeare.

TOO CANDID

An elderly beau had been delivering himself of certain forcible home truths when lecturing his nephew.

"Wonderful chap, your uncle," observed a friend when the old gentleman had disappeared. "So well preserved."

"I don't know so much about his being well preserved," growled the offended nephew, "but he is unpleasantly candid."—Youth's Companion.

All But Halt

"My poor fellow," said the lady, "here is a quarter for you. Goodness, gracious, it must be dreadful to be lame, but just think how much worse it would be if you were blind."
 "Yer right, lady," agreed the beggar, "when I was blind I was always getting counterfeit money."—Judge.

HIS HEART IN HIS HEAD

"He's a cold proposition—a regular cabbage!"
 "How's that?"
 "Got his heart in his head."

Accepting Terms

Never get discouraged, Do not let your valor fade, When you get a lemon, Just make lemonade.

Just Complaint

Two men registered in a Buffalo hotel and asked for a double room. Not long after they reached the room one phoned to the front office.
 "I thought you told us this was a double room," he said.
 "It is," answered the room clerk.
 "Why, isn't the bed big enough?"
 "The bed is all right," said the guest, "but where is the other bed?"

Low-Down

An Iowa girl en route to visit friends in New York entered the city by the Hudson tunnel, then took the subway to their address.
 "What do you think of the city?" they asked on her arrival.
 "I couldn't say," she replied. "I've had only a worm's eye view."

PROBABLY NOT KNOWN

Guide—There are ten thousand skeletons and skulls in the National museum at Washington.
 Tourist—And how many in the capitol, do you know?

So That's That

A woman's dress, from hat to sole, From liner to locket, Should always make a perfect whole, And does—in hubby's pocket.

Out for Big Game

An immigrant from Ireland was just stepping off the boat to the dock when he saw a fifty-cent piece lying at his feet, and started to stoop to pick it up. Suddenly he straightened again.
 "No, be the saints!" he ejaculated. "This is the land of opportunity. I'll wait till I find them thicker."—American Legion Weekly.

Not Her Grandmother

Conductor—Pardon me, madam, but your girl seems more than twelve.
 Mother—Conductor! Would you take me to be the mother of a girl that age?
 Conductor—Lady, don't tell me you're her grandmother!

Our Daily Bread

Little Frances had been struggling to learn the Lord's prayer, and her grandmother asked her how she was getting on.
 "Pretty well, grandma," said she. "I can say down to the eating part already."—Everybody's Magazine.

Job for Police

Early in the morning a woman telephoned for the Reading (Pa.) police to come to her house, and upon the arrival of the officers in a car, she requested them to compel her son to take his cough medicine, which the lad had refused to do. The police declined jurisdiction.

Odd Use for Taxicabs

Congestion on the sidewalks of Paris has become so great that many are forced to use taxicabs to get around the crowds.
