LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Chas. Garrison presented himself with a fine new touring car this week. It is of the famous Oldsmobile make and was purchased of the Powell Service Station.

Fourteen ladies, members of the O. E. S., motored over to New Plymouth and were the guests of Mrs. C. F. Eder and Mrs. Harry Goshert. The afternoon was happily spent in visiting and delicious refreshments marked the end of a perfect visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Marshall and C. W. Reberger and family are representing Nyssa at a big Iowa picnic at Payette today. This picnic is an annual affair and is looked forward to with much pleasure by former Iowans.

Came to the Maxwell place in Kingman Colony, May 1, one Jersey yearling steer, branded 22 on left side. Owner please come and get same—pay pasture bill and advertising.
J. W. Hanks.

Mrs. H. T. Francis is quite ill. Mrs. Albert Iredale of Emmott is at her bedside.

Miss Mabel Hugg and Miss Foster of Boise came down Saturday and were the guests of Mrs. Chas. McConnell. On Sunday Mrs. McConnell and her mother, Mrs. J. A. Schneider, and guests, all went to Weiser and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Sprinkle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith and Mrs. Dean Smith left Monday for a ten days visit with Mrs. B. Smith's sister at Southerland, Oregon. From there they will go on to Portland and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller and family visited friends north of Payette Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Butler and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marshall spent Sunday in Ontario, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Lackey.

Malheur Enterprise: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beam of Nyssa were visitors Tuesday en route for the Blue mountains, where they will spend a short outing. They also expect to find tempting huckleberries in the Blue mountain country.

G. E. Bertsch and wife visited G. E.'s brother at Wilder Thursday.

By a stroke of "Mack's" magic wand the Silver Grill restaurant has been transformed into the Oregon Cafe. However, Mrs. Riley and her efficient helpers are still on the job and the hungry public can satisfy the wants of the inner man on the best the market affords, cooked to perfection, and at a minimum cost.

It seems like old times to be able to get a "stack of hot" for 20c. That's all they are at the Oregon Cafe.

Mrs. Catherine Bertsch sold her touring car this week and bought Dr. Sarasin's Sedan. Thereupon the doctor bought himself a new car.

Emory Baird and J. A. Benson had the misfortune to overturn a coupe in rounding a curve coming down hill in Apple Valley last Sunday night. The car was badly jammed but the boys escaped without serious injury.

Mrs. G. E. Bertsch received a telegram from the East stating that her oldest brother, Christian Rist of Sioux Falls, S. D., had passed away. Death was caused by a complication of diseases of long standing.

Mr. Campbell of American Falls is here on a visit with the Matheny family. Mrs. Matheny is a daughter of Mr. Campbell and has just returned in company with her father from a visit to her old home.

Increased shipping business has necessitated the addition of another trick at the local telegraph office. The second trick operator is R. E. Laffer from Weiser and the third trick operator is F. S. Woodruff from Nampa.

Cools the stomach, washes out the bowels, drives out impurities, helps the liver; Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Take it once a week during warm weather and see how happy and contented you'll be. 35c. Tea or Tablets.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stubbs and children left Wednesday morning for Lewiston, Idaho, to make their home. They made the trip by auto, Merle Cheeley transporting their household goods in his big motor truck.

County Assessor Andrew Graham was in Nyssa on official business Wednesday.

H. M. Hough had a new window sign painted this week for his meat market and is as proud as the small boy with his first pair of pants with pockets in 'em.

J. A. Davenport, district manager of the Malheur Home Telephone Telephone Co. was in Nyssa Wednesday on official business.

Ma. and Mrs. W. B. Rice of Caldwell called on the Bertsch family Wednesday of this week.

Jack Barrett made a brief stop in Nyssa Thursday while en route to Greeley, Colo., to assume the management of a Skaggs store at that place. Jack has just been transferred by the company from Eugene and stopped off to see his parents, Mr. and C. W. Barrett.

Frank Luck and family and G. W. Bentor, and family were also among those present at the Iowa picnic held at Payette Thursday.

Dr. Sarasin has been confined to his home by sickness this week.

Miss Ruth Reberger entertained Mrs. Marshall's Sunday school class on Thursday. The Misses Grace and Mabel Posey of Vale were guests of honor. The day was pleasantly spent with music, games on the lawn, followed by delicious refreshments.

George Reberger is spending the week with friends in Vale.

Mrs. Tom Newby left this week to join her husband at Bonners Ferry, Ida., where he is employed with a railroad construction crew.

Miss Iva Walters is reported to be seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gibson and family of Portland are guests of Mr. Gibson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gibson.

S. F. Foster and family of Haines were Nyssa visitors on Wednesday. Mr. Foster conducted a drugstore in Nyssa for many years.

Mrs. Zena Rambo and son motored to Ontario in the new car Monday. Chas. Newbill returned home Tuesday from U. A. B., where he has been playing baseball for some time.

Dewey Ray and family returned from their Portland trip Monday.

A. Brown enjoyed a Sunday visit from his mother and sister of Ontario.

Miss Violet Cox returned Sunday night from Eugene, where she spent her vacation with her cousin, Mrs. Tressie Gwynne.

Miss Ethel Ross of Ontario is visiting her brother, Chas. Crawford.

The old Service Garage building has been designated as the light testing station for autos. The new state law requires certain regulations for auto lights and the station here will be a convenience to motorists in keeping their lights according to the legal requirements.

Flies, mosquitoes, bugs, all carry contagious diseases. Hot weather is hard on people troubled with their stomachs and bowels. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is just what you need, regulates the bowels, tones and cleans the stomach. Take it and be cool and happy.

Farewell Party

A farewell party was given Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stubbs Monday evening at Odd Fellows hall by the people of the community. A large crowd was in attendance and a most enjoyable time was had. Many expressions of regret were heard over the loss to the community of Mr. and Mrs. Stubbs. We will especially feel the loss of Mrs. Stubbs' helpful efforts in arranging musical programs. An enjoyable feature of the evening was a big feed, in preparing which Nyssa ladies excel.

A 6-cylinder Mitchell car. Could be conditioned at small expense. For sale for storage bill. W. B. Hoxie.

Make Your Home Happier

It is not reasonable to expect any housewife to preserve an unruined disposition after a grueling day spent in a hot kitchen working over a smoky cook stove.

What a change is wrought with the advent of an Electric Range into the home! Even with all the burners going full blast the kitchen is little warmer than the coolest room in the house.

There Is No Substitute for Electric Cooking

An Electric Range permits a woman to become better acquainted with the enjoyment of her living room. Automatic control does away with watching cooking foods. And with electric cooking the need for scrubbing smoke-blistened pans and washing soot stained walls vanishes, doubling her hours of leisure.

Buy Your Electric Range NOW!

Don't put off buying an Electric Range another day. Take advantage of this special offer—$5.00 down and the balance in easy to meet monthly sums. Get your range at once! Enjoy the new comforts it will bring to your home while you are paying for it.
