LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Welcome to our city, teachers. In behalf of the community we extend the glad hand to you all; to the returning teachers first, and also to those who have never before been in our midst. We trust your stay with us will be mutually pleasant and profitable. We are all backing you up in your work. Hop to it.

Say, boys, you can get a "stack of hats" at the Oregon Cafe for 20c. They are just like mother used to make and fill an aching void in the department of the interior.

Mrs. P. M. Binkley returned Saturday from a two-months visit with a son and other relatives at Grove, Oklahoma, and that air of gloom which has pervaded P. M.'s countenance like a pall during her absence has disappeared like frost before the summer sun.

Herman Towne is adding a porch and bath and bedroom to his residence. Mrs. Ada Blaylock is also improving her residence by adding a back porch and bath.

Mrs. Clinton Webb has returned to Nyssa from Northern Idaho, where she spent the summer.

Mrs. W. S. Clure of Wendell, Ida., spent the week in Nyssa as a guest at the Frank Miller home. Mrs. Clure is attending to business matters and renewing acquaintance with old Nyssa friends.

Married—Wednesday, September 9, 1926, Gordon Ray and Miss Gladys Yost, both of Ontario. After a honeymoon of a couple of weeks spent on the coast they will be at home in Ontario, where the groom is employed in the Ryan Meat Market.

If you haven't yet tried a square meal at the Oregon Cafe you will eventually, so why wait? He who hesitates is lost.

The Journal will make a special subscription rate to teachers of 50c from now until the first of June, 1926. This amount may be paid any time before school closes. Let us have your names at once. We hope to have a special correspondent at the school who will give us an interesting weekly summary of school happenings.

Scott McClanshan and Frank Stockwell of Parma visited F. R. Marshall Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bean of Elgin spent Sunday with the George Clossen family.

For Sale—Westinghouse Electric Range, 2 burner and oven, $19.50. Call Mrs. E. J. Powell.

Constipating upsets the entire system—causing many illnesses to the human family. Don't worry. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will drive out constipation, regulate the bowels, tones the stomach, purifies the system. Give it a thorough trial. 35c. Tea or tablets. Nyssa Pharmacy, Holly Bros, Adrian.

Miss Selma Lackey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Lackey, and Albert Bash of Payette were married Wednesday, September 16. They will make their home at Payette, where Mr. Bash is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Francis and two nieces spent Wednesday in Boise.

Jim Diven has purchased a new Dodge car, preparatory to going on the road for a commercial house.

Viola McCurdy left last Friday for Ironside, where she will teach school this winter.

Irene Clossen went to Beulah Saturday to be in readiness to open school there Monday.

Mrs. Anna D. S. Pratt was down from Ironside Monday looking after property interests. The Pratts were early settlers on the Owyhee and still have some valuable farm property there.

New Fall Hats, ranging in price from $3.90 to $12.50. Mrs. E. J. Powell. Call.

The growing patronage of the Oregon Cafe attests its popularity. When a person once gets a taste of Mrs. Riley's home cooking you can't keep him away.

It enriches the blood, cleans your whole system. A remedy you should take occasionally whether you are sick or not. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea taken regularly helps you avoid sickness and disease. 35 cts. Tea or tablets. Nyssa Pharmacy, Holly Bros, Adrian.

Richard Fields Funeral School Days Are Here

Funeral services for little Richard Fields, whose untimely death occurred last Friday, were held in the Presbyterian church Sunday at 11 a. m. The services were in charge of Elder Gilchrist of the L. D. S. church, Elder Anderson of Weiser and Elder Robinson of Boise being the principal speakers. A large number of sorrowing friends and relatives were present to pay their tribute of love to one who had endeared himself to them by his sweet personality. The flowers were very beautiful and in great profusion, contributed by friends of the family. After the services a silent procession followed the remains to the West Side cemetery, where the little body was sorrowfully deposited in its last resting place.

The Bridge Club resumed its weekly meetings Thursday evening, after a summer's vacation. Mrs. Glenn Brown was hostess to guests to fill three tables. Mrs. Chas. McConnell was winner of first-prize and Mrs. F. D. Hall second. Delicious refreshments were served and a good time was had by all.

Mrs. Chas. McConnell went to Elgin Monday to bring back Mrs. Sarah McConnell, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Scott Harris, for a month.

District Attorney Blodgett and Marshall Cook are in Ontario this afternoon attending to legal business.

Card of Thanks.

To the kind friends and neighbors who so willingly assisted us during the illness and death of our beloved little babe, we wish to express our heartfelt thanks, also to those sending flowers and assisting in the music. May you all be spared such sorrow as our sincere wish.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fields,
Myrtle Fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Howe motored to Ontario Thursday evening.
