LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Harry Francis returned Thursday from Boise, where he had been for several days attending Mrs. Francis, who is in a hospital there recovering from an operation. He reports Mrs. Francis recovering nicely. C. T. Clauser of Payette had charge of the lumber yard during Mr. Francis' absence.

Rev. Hershey and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Foster returned today from Enterprise, bringing with them a truck load of Mr. Hershey's household goods. While there Mr. Foster disposed of a load of his famous honey product.

Malheur Enterprise: Mrs. W. L. Hutton and Mrs. C. O. Coates were Nyssa visitors last Friday. While in the neighboring town, they enjoyed a pleasant dinner at the Oregon Cafe, where Mrs. Edith Riley is located at present.

Barkley Wilson of Portland is visiting relatives here and at Parma. He has a sister seriously ill in the latter city.

C. D. Simpson, a former Nyssite, is visiting relatives and friends here this week. Mr. Simpson is farming a 320 acre ranch at the end of the branch line beyond Homedale and reports the crops and good prices.

Luella, 4 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Benton, broke her arm Sunday just above the elbow, falling from the pony she was riding. The fracture was reduced by Dr. H. J. P. Lattig and the little lady is getting along nicely, although the break is so near the elbow makes its treatment more difficult.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller had their guests to Sunday dinner. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Treney and family of Portland, Ida., and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Lattig and family of Payette.

Mrs. Harry Francis tendered an operation at St. Alphonsus hospital in Boise Monday morning. Her many friends will be glad to know that she is getting along nicely.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips, Thursday morning, a ten pound girl.

Rev. J. J. Fleming visited Nyssa friends Thursday, having stopped off while en-route to his new appointment at Baker.

Malheur Enterprise: Win S. Frown, publisher of the Enterprise, enjoyed a week end visit with his brother Harry Brown, editor of the Nyssa Journal. He returned to the city Monday morning.

Albert Hirsch bought the residence property belonging to the Carfield estate at the administrator's sale held on Tuesday, October 6, his bid of $410 being the highest received. The property is on First street near the Boise Payette lumber yard.

Mrs. Chas. McConnell and Myrtle Fields motored to Boise this morning to spend the day.

Mrs. Edith Riley of the Oregon Cafe motored to Vale Wednesday evening on business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. High of Vale visited friends in Nyssa Thursday.

Rev. Smuts was in Nyssa several days this week preparatory to moving to his new charge at Haines, Or.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Warren are here from Baker, visiting at the P. M. Warren home.

H. J. Ward spent several days in Boise this week on business.

For Sale—Westinghouse Electric Range, 2 burner and oven, $19.50. Mrs. E. J. Powell.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Cook, on Tuesday, October 6, a boy. The youngster has been named James Irwin. He might be considered in the nature of a birthday present, as he arrived on his dad's birthday anniversary.

The two-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Edmonton, who are visiting at the Greer Campbell home, was taken violently ill Wednesday with symptoms indicating poisoning. Dr. Bradford was called and gave the necessary treatment and the little one recovered from the attack, but for a time she was in serious danger. It is believed she was poisoned by the spray on fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Tyles and Mr. and Mrs. H. Springsteen of New Plymouth, Idaho, were dinner guests at the H. J. Ward home last Sunday.

DOFT FOOL WITH A COLD—Take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, steaming hot, at bed time. Your cold will be gone in the morning.

Holly Bros., Adrian, Or. Nyssa Pharmacy.

Mrs. J. H. Kinnaird of Mapleton, Idaho, is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. J. Robertson, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gibson of Portland and Mrs. Gordon are visiting at the home of Mrs. Gibson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald.

Artie Robertson and family moved this week to the Bowden house recently vacated by Jim Diven.

Malheur Enterprise: Miss Hazel Metch of Nyssa was a house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Humph this week.

School Notes

The first football game of the season took place at Roswell Friday, October 2. The result was a score of 6 to 0 in Roswell's favor, but this being the first game and many of the players inexperienced it was a much better game than was expected. The lineup for the game was:

Marion Klinkenberg, center
Raymond Thrasher and Gilbert Klinkenberg tackles.
Eugene Pratt and Houston Dunaway, guards.
Geo. Davis and Clyde Benton, ends.
Clifford Fields and John Johnson, halves.
George Newby, fullback.
Frank Rambaud, Quarterback.

The lineup for today's game with Vale:

George Davis and Arthur Servoss, ends.
Raymond Thrasher and John Johnson (or Gilbert Klinkenberg), tackles.
Eugene Pratt and Floya Elliott, guards.

Marion Klinkenberg, center.
Clifford Fields and Kenneth Green, halves.

Frank Rambaud, quarter back.
George Newby, fullback.

Sub—Houston Dunaway, Max Dunaway, Clyde Benton, Otis Crooker.

Everybody come out and boost for the home team. Your presence will encourage them to put forth their best efforts.

Miss Rita Beam was elected high school yell leader and Marjo Cowins her assistant. A "pop rally" will take place the evening preceding the next game.

You can get the Journal a whole year for $1.50. Special rates to teachers.

Our Principal is my shepherd,
I shall always want.
He maketh me to stay in the assembly
He leadeth me into his office,
I do not fear.
The book in my pants, it comforts me.
Yes, though I dwell in the N. H. S.
forever,
I shall always fear him.
His demerits and his gaff they scare me.

He prepareth the lesson for me;
He crowneth my head with a ruler,
Which maketh me to run off at the mouth;
Surely the demerits and the rulers
Will not follow me all the days of my life;
If they do—
I shall dwell in the N. H. S. forever.
