LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Miss Eva Boydell came home Sunday from The Dalles, where she had been teaching, and Monday was taken to Boise, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. Her many friends will be glad to know that she is recovering nicely from the operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Butler had as their guests Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Laakey of Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Beach of Payette, Ms. and Mrs. Dewey Ray and son and Mrs. P. M. Binkley.

The Tuesday evening Bridge Club was held at the home of Mrs. A. H. Boydell. Three tables were in play. Miss Edith Scott, guest of the evening, won first prize and Mrs. H. Diven won second. The evening concluded with delicious refreshments served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Ewing left Wednesday for Pocatello to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Ewing's parents.

Miss Edith Scott of Jordan Valley, former Nyssa teacher, spent the week end at the J. Boydell home.

Miss Mabel Hugg and Miss Kate Foster of Boise spent Sunday in Nyssa, the guests of Miss Chas. McConnell.

The Wood Bros., bee men, have gone to Boise to work till spring, their own bees having been properly taken care of for the winter.

Mrs. Dwight Smith and Mrs. Lucille Johnson entertained at Thanksgiving dinner the J. B. Smiths, Dean Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fry, and M. M. Deas and family of Payette.

The Misses Montie Adams, Pernice Vorhies, Iva and Grace Walters spent Saturday afternoon in Ontario on a shopping trip.

Miss Bernice Vorhies is spending the week with friends in Boise.

Arthur Servoss and Paul Crocker went on a hunting expedition Tuesday and returned with six ducks apiece, which put them in a proper frame of mind to fittingly observe Thanksgiving.

The football game held Friday between Ontario and Nyssa high schools was a disappointment to our side, the score being 26 to 0 in favor of Ontario. This, however, does not discourage our boys.

Miss Viola McCurdy is spending her vacation in Nyssa. She is teaching at Ironside, Oregon, this year.

Mrs. Jim Fogle and daughter Pauline left Thursday for John Day to attend the funeral of her mother, who died very suddenly.

A full house greeted R. E. Close, assistant superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, Sunday night at the Methodist church when he gave his moving picture entertainment entitled "The Triumph of Justice." A collection of $35 was taken.

Dale Garrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Garrison, was seriously injured last Friday when his hand was caught in an electric washing machine and badly mangled. Dr. Sarasin was called and dressed the wound.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cook and family left Wednesday for Baker to spend the week end and partake of their Thanksgiving turkey with Arthur's people there.

A. R. McCarty was down from Boise Tuesday looking after business matters.

Miss Montie Adams spent the few remaining days of vacation after the institute at Vale at her home at Middleton, Ida.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschell Hamby and two children of Baker returned to their home Saturday, after a week's visit with Mrs. Hamby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Shelton.

A number of the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Felton arrived Tuesday morning at an announcement that they had come to spend the day with these worthy people. An enjoyable day was spent, good eats being a prominent and pleasant feature of the occasion.

Mrs. Roseoe Clark of Nampa visited with Mrs. O. W. Rebeeger Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. A. Brown was a visitor in Payette Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Williams of Twin Falls visited at the J. A. Felton ranch Saturday.

All the Nyssa teachers spent Monday and Tuesday at the institute in Vale.

Leonard Sloper spent Thanksgiving in Boise.

Miss Ruth Shelton enjoyed Thanksgiving day with her friend Miss Rowena Glenn on the Owyhee.

Mrs. J. Boydell is in Boise with her daughter, Miss Eva Boydell, who underwent an operation on Tuesday and is reported doing nicely.

Glenn Pounds Married Mrs. Dunn Passes

(Malheur Enterprise)
Miss Mabel Hart and Glenn Pounds, popular among Vale's younger set, were the principals of a simple wedding ceremony performed in Welsch on Wednesday afternoon immediately after the wedding they went to Nyssa and were entertained at the home of Mrs. Dallas Dunesan, a sister of the bridegroom.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hart and has lived in this city since early childhood. She graduated from the Vale high school with the class of '23. Both she and her husband were members of the Novelty Four orchestra. Mr. Pounds has also lived here the past two years, with the exception of the past few months he spent in Washington.

Besides many relatives, the young couple have a host of friends in this community who wish them every joy. Mr. and Mrs. Pounds expect to live near Nyssa.

Mrs. Coyle Dunn of Passau, a sister of the Wilson boys, died at her home in that city Monday morning, after a lingering illness caused by tuberculosis. Mrs. Dunn, who is a native of Tennessee, had lived in Passau a number of years. She is survived by a father, two small daughters and six brothers. She was 86 years of age.

Funeral services were held at Passau Tuesday, a number of relatives and friends from Nyssa being in attendance.

Virginia Entertains

Miss Virginia Thompson was hostess Wednesday evening to H. S. friends at a party at her home. The evening was happily spent in playing games, listening to music and partaking of delicious refreshments.

Those present were: Robert Clouston, Marjo Cowles, Robert Thompson, Paul Crocker, Georgia Thompson, George Newby, Verna Thompson, Mildred Long, Arthur Servoss, Mary Swan, Doris Green, Agnes Swan, Otis Crocker, Ruth Rebasger, George Davis, Herbert Hostie, Ruth Shelton, Iva Walters, Max Gilchrist, Donald Gamble.

Wanted a Change

Dorothy yawned and announced: "I do wish that school was over, and summer was over, and I had a new teacher." Her mother looked up and smiled. "Why do you wish all that?" she asked. Dorothy yawned again. "Well," said she, "I'm so tired of despising the same teacher!"

Few Tired Feet Now

"What's become of old George Hadalott?" asked the visitor to the old home town. "Oh, his business failed and he's in the poorhouse now," replied the native. "Too bad, sorry to hear it. What business was he in?" "He manufactured a powder to shake in the shoes to ease tired feet. He did pretty well, too, until the automobile ruined his business."—Cincinnati Enquirer.
