LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

George Clossen and C. C. Hunt made a business trip to Vale Tuesday.

R. H. Keniston of East Kingston, N. H., writes for a sample copy of the Gate City Journal. Our fame must be spreading abroad.

Mrs. Zena Rambaad left Thursday to spend a week with friends in Boise. Mrs. Sadie Gibson of Payette has arrived to keep house for Mrs. Rambaad during her absence.

Rev. Hershey drove to Gooding, Idaho, Friday to bring home the son and daughter, Paul and Ruthanna, who have been attending the college there. They were accompanied by Misses Maud and Martha Casteel, who will spend the holidays with Rev. Line's family at Ontario. They are also students at the Methodist college.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marshall spent Tuesday at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald.

Mrs. Tony Schneider and baby left Wednesday for her home at Orofino, Idaho, after a pleasant visit with relatives here.

Mrs. Nankervis left for Seattle, Wash., to spend the holidays with her daughter there, after spending a couple of weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Baydell, here.

Mrs. Agnes Hamaker is confined to her bed this week with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ewing spent Sunday with relatives in Caldwell.

We don't know just what kind of a show the grades are putting on at the theater Wednesday evening, December 23, but when we sit down and calmly contemplate the personnel of the coaching staff we know it's going to be good. Let's all go and show that uppity high school bunch they are not the only towel on the line, even if they did pull off a mighty successful Hi Jinks entertainment recently.

For your family's safety talk with Hunter.

La Von Robison of Boise has been in Nyssa for three days on business.

Jess Erwin and mother have moved into the Peer house.

Al Thompson and family moved back to their farm Saturday.

Are you going to see the Lottery Man?

Miss Morris, second grade teacher, being ill went to her home in Parma Tuesday. Mrs. R. J. Davis is substituting for her.

J. A. Felton made a business trip to Boise this week.

Mrs. B. O. Fowler visited friends in Ontario Tuesday.

Frank Sherwood arrived home Wednesday from the O. A. C. to spend vacation week with home folks.

Mrs. Harry Evans and children and Mrs. Hennis left this morning for Winsor, Colo., to spend a month visiting relatives. Upon their return they will move to Weiser, where Mr. Evans has rented a farm.

The Lottery Man—where is he?

Paul Howe was in Parma several days this week, being called there by the death of his sister's husband, who died of pneumonia.

Earl Schweizer and Ada Blaylock are absent from school this week on account of illness.

E. J. Burrough was a passenger on the Homedale branch Monday, having gone to look after his ranch in Kingman Colony.

Mrs. Florence Hansler, R. N., left Friday for Chicago, Ill., after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. O. G. Bauer.

C. F. Miller and family and Mr. and Mrs. Troy Sitton spent Sunday with friends at Fruitland.

One Christmas Eve

The grade children are almost ready to present "One Christmas Eve" at the theatre Wednesday, December 23.

SYNOPSIS OF THE PLAY

Johnnie and Mary, two little children, have decided there is no Santa Claus. As they are talking they go to sleep. While they are sleeping the elves, soldiers, dolls, story books and fairies come trying to prove there is one. After all the toys have gone the children awaken. They have dreamed of having seen the toys and are fully convinced there is a Santa Claus. The cast is as follows:

Prologue.....John Ernest
Johnnie.....Stanley Hershey
Mary, His small sister, Harriet Sarasin
Elves.....Second grade boys

Xmas Entertainment

The Methodist Sunday school will give their Christmas entertainment on Christmas eve, December 24, at 7:30 at the church. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. The program will be given in two parts, the first part consisting of songs and recitations by the younger members, and the second part consisting of beautiful pictures, reproductions of the Partridge by great artists. The pictures, with Scripture readings and songs, will tell the story of the birth of Christ and His childhood. The hymn, "Angels From the Realms of Glory" will be sung by the girls choir and beautifully illustrated on the screen.

At Last

Dick Tensen has been busy during the past few days handing out cigars to "the boys" and receiving their congratulations over the arrival, via stork air line, of a fine 8 lb boy, which arrived on Wednesday last at the Ontario hospital. Mother and child are both doing fine. The youngster has been named Dick George, Dick explaining that his wife is still under the delusion, after all these years of married life, that he is all right. Heretofore Dick's boys have all been girls, and the arrival of the real thing at last has caused a smile that won't come off.

Guild Entertainment

The Ladies Guild of St. Paul's church met at the home of Mrs. J. J. Sarasin on Thursday. The Guild enjoyed very much a visit from Arch deacon Creasey. After an evening of sewing, refreshments were served by the hostess.

Compare its Value

It is easy to claim value, but the only way to actually prove value is by comparison.

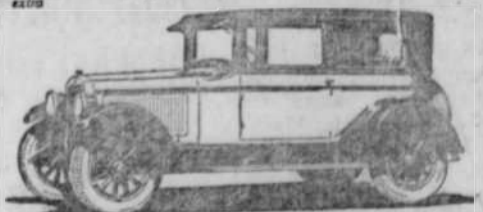

We want you to compare Oldsmobile, point for point, with cars costing hundreds of dollars more. Compare its Beauty. Compare its Performance. Then compare its Price.

By this sort of comparison alone will you realize the greater value Oldsmobile offers you for your dollar.

COACH
