Fire!

A fire blazed in the Wilson building Sunday afternoon, but was subdued before it had spread far. The fire started in a room occupied by a couple of bachelor girls, who left their electric iron on the ironing board without disconnecting it while they went to the ball game to see Nyssa wallop Jamieson. The iron burned through the board and dropped to the floor, through which it soon burned its way, and started a fire between the floor and the ceiling of the room below. The damage was estimated at $350, fully covered by insurance.

Off to Conference

D. MacLafferty will leave Sunday to attend an international conference of the Seventh Day Adventist church at Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The conference will be attended by about 500 delegates, representing practically every civilized nation on the globe, and continues from May 27 to June 14. When conference is over Mr. MacLafferty will visit his old home at Elmira, New York, where he sold papers on the street during the Civil war. He is anxious to see if the old swimmin' hole is where it was 65 years ago. He expects to be gone about two months.

Captured Eagles

Two objects of much interest are at the Goodrich poultry yards. They are two young eagles, not yet able to fly, which were captured last Saturday on Malheur butte by Mr. Goodrich's children. Although very young they have enormous claws and beak and it makes one wonder what they will be when the birds are full grown. One of the old birds was on the nest when the children found them and the wonder is that the children were not attacked.

Senior Class Play

In spite of the rain and inclement weather a record audience greeted the senior class of the Nyssa high school when they presented the play, "All of a Sudden Peggy" at the Liberty theatre Wednesday evening, and the audience was well repaid for the trouble. The young performers acquitted themselves with much credit, exhibiting histrionic abilities worthy of professionals. The girls' costumes were very pretty (and so were the wearers) and were well worth the price of admission.

Marjo Cowins as Jimmie Kepple, the hero, gave a very adequate performance; George Davis, as Major Archie Phipps, and Jeff Irwin as Lord Crackenthorpe, did some fine character work. Mildred Long proved to be a very winsome "Peggy." Mary Toombs as Lady Crackenthorpe gave a convincing portrayal of a haughty English woman of the old school. Rita Beam as Lady O'Mara depicted the Irish characteristics and brogue to perfection. The other characters were all faithfully portrayed.

The receipts amounted to $87.

Nyssa Wins Another

In a free hitting game marred by numerous errors on both sides Nyssa defeated the Jamieson team last Sunday 10 to 12. It looked bad for Nyssa at the start of the fourth inning, with the score 5 to 1 against them, but the locals found their batting eye and six hits and two errors netted them seven runs, and they were never headed after that. In the ninth Rambaud, having a 11-run lead, eased up and Jamieson put five men across, but still lacked six runs of tying the score.

School Faculty

The Nyssa school faculty for the coming school year has been selected as follows:

- L. E. Messenger, Principal,
- Miss Lucile Stephens.
- Miss Miriam Dille.
- Miss Bernice Enger.
- Frank Newton.
- Miss Moe, Vale.
- Miss Gladys Garrison.
- Miss Edna Morris.
- Miss Marry Matheny.
- Miss Lilly May Hunt.
- Mrs. E. M. Benson.

With the exception of Messrs. Messenger and Newton and Miss Moe the teaching faculty are well known to the people of this community and have their entire confidence. The three new teachers come highly recommended and are expected to add strength to the teaching force. There is every reason to believe that the good work of the past year will be continued next year.

GOOD TO LOOK AT BETTER TO DRIVE

Oldsmobile Six continues to grow in public preference because its genuine beauty is coupled with liveliness and smoothness through its entire speed range—with easy handling and restful comfort, over all roads and with the stamina that always results from conscientious manufacturing. Of course, Oldsmobile Six is a good car to look at—but it is a better car to drive.

Government tax reduction of two per cent allowed to all Oldsmobile purchasers from February twenty-seventh to March twenty-eighth inclusive.
