"Ads" on Ceiling

Barber shops in Paris have leased their ceiling space to advertising concerns. Patrons are thus forced to read the "ads" while the barber shaves them, unless they desire to close their eyes, says the Dearborn Independent.

Louisiana's Transfer

On October 1, 1900, the Spanish government by secret treaty of St. Ildefonso ceded Louisiana to France. Louis XV of France 38 years prior to this had ceded to Spain all of Louisiana. The United States acquired this territory by purchase.

Fish's Many Names

The crappie is commonly called bachelor, camp-bellite, new light, sac-a-lait, tinmouth, carpet and chequappa. Its range is from New York and Vermont westward through the Great Lakes region and the Mississippi valley to the Dakotas and south to Texas.

Pan-American Conference

The first Pan-American conference opened at Washington on October 2, 1889. It was originated and planned by James G. Blaine, secretary of state under President Harrison. Ten republics of the two countries signed an arbitration treaty.

Man of 60 Helped

by Simple Mixture

"After taking Adlerika I feel better than for years. At my age (60) it is ideal—so different from other medicines," (signed) W. W. Carter. Adlerika is a simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., which removes GAS in ten minutes and often brings surprising relief to the stomach. Stops that full bloated feeling. Brings out old waste matter you never thought was in your system. Excellent for chronic constipation. Nyssa Pharmacy.
