LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Commercial Club Meeting

A special meeting of the Commercial Club will be held Thursday evening January 20, at 7 o'clock. A number of important matters are to be taken up and a large attendance is hoped for.

Mrs. J. B. Smith was taken suddenly ill Sunday night with neuralgia of the heart and for a time her condition was critical. Her condition shows some improvement now, however.

Eddie Powell sold three Atwater Kent radios this week, the purchasers being John Cancelmo, Wm. McEwen and Lester Ernest. This makes 18 radios Mr. Powell has sold, radios proving very popular in Nyssa. Eddie also sold a new fully equipped Oldsmobile to Dr. J. J. Sarazin.

Miss Amelia DeBear left Friday for Ontario where she will attend school, her parents having recently moved there.

Merle Cheeley's car caught fire Thursday evening and was entirely consumed. The accident happened a few miles this side of Caldwell on the Evergreen highway. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Barney Wilson, Jesse Thompson and A. H. Boydell attended grocers meeting in Welser Thursday evening.

Mrs. George Hammack and little daughter Dorothy of Ontario visited friends in Nyssa on Saturday.

Blayne Boydell is visiting his parents a few days.

Jimnie Cook has been very ill for a few days but is getting better.

E. L. Allen and family have moved into the yellow house just north of P. M. Binkley's.

For Sale—Prepared cockerels suitable for breeding purposes. White Brahmas and Buff Orpingtons. Choice $1.50. Journal office.

R. A. Powell has leased the rooms in the Tensen Motor Co. building and will operate a rooming house.

A largely attended Ladies Aid meeting was held at the Methodist parsonage Thursday afternoon and plans discussed for fixing up the new basement.

Mrs. Leila Thompson and Mrs. Harry Francis were Ontario visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Haworth and three daughters were dinner guests Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newton.

Mrs. John Clark and son Jackie of Springfield, Ill., are visiting with Mrs. J. B. Hunter. The ladies are old time friends.

Mrs. P. M. Binkley left Tuesday morning for O. Olin, Idaho, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Bill Beck.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Miller and daughters were Sunday dinner guests at the Troy Sitton home.

Jack Hunter, the McConnon man, returned this week from a business trip to the LaGrande country.

A number of Nyssaites were doing jury duty at Vale this week. Among them were R. J. Davis, Dick Tensen, Pearl Bingham and Donald McCloud.

Bill Schireman made himself a present of an Oldsmobile car this week, which he purchased of Eddie Powell, local agent for that famous make of car.

Entertains Bridge Club

The Tuesday evening Bridge Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. C. L. McCoy. Four tables were in play. Mrs. John Cancelmo was victor in the playing contest, winning first prize, while Mrs. A. H. Boydell got away with second, with Mrs. Frank Hall third, Mrs. McCoy's mother, Mrs. King of Pendleton and Mrs. McCoy's sister, Mrs. H. M. Spell of Nampa, were guests of honor. Delicious refreshments were served and formed a fitting climax to the evening's pleasure.

Clean Before Painting

Surfaces which are to be painted must be clean and dry. Dust must be brushed or washed off and grease, whitewash and water paints must be removed.

Says the Deacon:

"It's strange how people will abuse the bridge that carries them over, instead of trying to 'make the earth a little heaven to go to heaven in.'—Atlanta Constitution.

Knocker's Long Service

Club Meeting

The regular annual meeting of the Commercial Club was held in the club rooms Thursday evening. Officers elected to serve for the coming year were:

President—C. L. McCoy.
Vice president—Dick Tensen.
Sec. Treas.—Frank Morgan.
Directors—H. T. Francis and Ernest Wilson.

As Mr. Morgan will be unable to assume his duties for some time R. A. Miller was appointed to serve until such time as Mr. Morgan will be able to take charge.

A salary of $25 a month was voted as compensation for the secretary.

A proposition from Ryder Bros. for space in their Oregon Trail guide book was voted down.

The matter of placing signs at various places along the highway was favorably considered and the secretary instructed to get in touch with other towns along the line, asking for their cooperation.

The committee appointed to canvass the town for financial support reported that from $60 to $70 per month, exclusive of the regular monthly dues, would be available.

The meeting was not very well attended, owing to a number of business men being out of town, but much interest was manifested by those present and a good meeting resulted.

A Successful Event

The O. E. S. Social Club was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Miller, with Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Frank Hall as hostesses. After the business meeting the past matron, Mrs. J. J. Sarazin, was presented with a half dozen salad forks, the gift of the Social Club in recognition of her efficient services of matron. Then slips of paper were passed and each one asked to write a New Year resolution. Mrs. J. Boydell was awarded the prize in this contest.

The guests were then invited to the dining room where they found a beautifully decorated table laden with refreshments. The center piece was a huge cake with seven candles, the latter representing the number of years the club has been in existence. Ten streamers representing the Star colors were suspended from the chandelier and attached to the table. Star place cards enabled the guests to find their places at the table. Place favors were boutonnieres made of bean candies representing the Star colors.

Eighteen guests were present, including Mrs. John Clark of Springfield, Ill., a house guest of Mrs. J. R. Hunter. A feature of the dinner service was that all dishes used were of paper. It was one of the most successful social events of the season and fully sustained the reputation Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Hall made as hostesses at their Armistice Day social, that event being so successful that they were drafted away out of their turn to put on another one.

Varieties of Jinxes

The natives of Galway consider the fox unlucky. If they meet a fox on their way to fish, they turn back for that day. If Irishmen or Italians pronounce the names of certain animals while they are fishing they are certain to have ill luck. In some sections of Scotland there are old women whose names are unlucky and such persons must be spoken of in an indirect way.

School Notes

The N. H. S. opened with cheer and enthusiasm by all the scholars, the only gloom being the fact that Miss Enger was forced to be absent on account of an operation.

The semester exams were held this week and judging by the smiles and laughter about the school room everyone got good grades.

Mrs. Messenger is teaching in Miss Enger's place this week. This is the only way we could stand Miss Enger's absence.

The girls basket ball team met defeat by a large margin at Parma last Friday night. This makes three games lost and 1 won against other high schools.

The boys basket ball team kept up their dizzy pace by trouncing the strong Parma team at Parma last Friday night. The score was 19 to 22. They defeated the Parma alumni last Wednesday and followed by defeating the Roswell alumni on Tuesday of this week.

The score for the Parma alumni game was 22 to 18, as was the score over the Roswell alumni. This makes three straight victories for the "Phantom Five." The local lads will call on all their skill and luck when they meet Vale here Friday, January 14, in the first bid for the southeastern Oregon championship. Vale is doped to win by 2 to 1 odds, but so were they in the last game of football and the local lads met the Valeites overflowing with fight, and it won't be a dead bunch that Vale meets here January 14.

Tree Petrification

The forest service says that the petrification of wood takes hundreds of years. It therefore is not possible for a complete petrification to take place during the lifetime of an individual.
