Current Wit and Humor

ACCOMMODATING

"Callahan," demanded the judge, why did you dump your hod of bricks on your friend McIntyre?"

"It was this way, judge," explained the offender. "I wanted to tell McIntyre that if he was hard up for money to come to the building where I was workin' and I'd do him a favor. An' when I saw him comin' down the street, dead broke, I dropped the bricks down on his head, knowin' he had an accident policy."

TOO MANY EYES

Mrs. Potato—For goodness sake, stop crying; you'll have the whole place flooded soon!

Continuous Performance

"My poultry never miss a day from laying," says Bill Gott.
"For when they are not laying eggs those hens are laying off."

No Witnesses Needed

The magistrate was dealing with a case in which two women were concerned.

"What is your complaint against the defendant?" he inquired of the plaintiff.

"Please, your worship," was the reply, "she called me a fool, and I have witnesses to prove it."

Chorus Girl Archeology

The chorus girl had picked up a scientific work. Her roommate thought it was a novel and wanted to know what it was about.

"Well, it seems we all emerged from the primal ooze—"

"But who's the hero?"

"Seems to be a party named Algae."

Service

Worried Telephone Subscriber—I say, my telephone hasn't been working for a month, and you paid no attention to my letter of complaint.

Official—We did. We rang you up to ask what was wrong, and got no answer!

SPECIAL ELECTION NOTICE
KINGMAN COLONY IRRIGATION DISTRICT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a special election will be held on Monday, the 29th day of August, 1927, at the school house in School District No. 61, Malheur County, State of Oregon, and within the said Kingman Colony Irrigation District, at which there will be submitted to the legal voters of said district, the question whether or not said district shall be authorized to enter into a contract with the United States providing for the construction of the Owyhee Irrigation Project by the United States, and the payment of a proportionate part of the actual costs thereof by the said district, said proportionate part of such costs to be determined as in said contract provided and the total construction costs of the district not to exceed the sum of $18,000,000.

A copy of the draft of said proposed contract approved as to form by the Secretary of the Interior, is on file with the Secretary of said district in his office at Nyssa, Oregon, and may be examined by any interested person.

The polls shall be open at 8 o'clock in the morning of the day of said election and be kept open until 5 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, when the same shall be closed.

At such election the ballots shall contain the words, "contract with the United States—yes," and "contract with the United States—no". Said election shall be held and the results thereof determined in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions of law governing the election of irrigation district officers.

By order of the Board of Directors of the Kingman Colony Irrigation District.

Dated this 25th day of July, 1927.

E. M. BLODGETT,
Secretary of Kingman Colony
Irrigation District.

$35 worth of Merchandise to be given away

Beginning July 29, with the purchase of 5 gallons of gas a 85c size of Fisk quality tube repair kit will be given away.

I wish to announce to the public that I am prepared to do repair work by the hour or schedule rates put out by the different automobile factories. I will make any workmanship good that fails to give satisfactory results. My regrinding jobs will be sent to the Nordland Parts Co. of Boise, who have the best equipment in the state for regrinding cylinder blocks, and it costs no more to get the best.

Before you throw that old battery away and buy a new one, let the Star Garage test your battery. For $3.75 you can get from 6 to 18 months more use out of your battery. Remember the place and call for your tube repair kits.

This age finds Camel worthy of leadership

THE people of this modern, busy age are always anxious to recognize quality, and they have placed Camel first among cigarettes.

Modern smokers have an experienced taste that quickly learns to know good tobaccos. Camel is their favorite, because they recognize in it the choicest tobaccos grown, blended to bring out their exquisite taste and fragrance.

Camel has won its way to the top in the hardest-to-please age ever known because it has the qualities of goodness that make smoking a pleasure. You will revel in the enjoyment of these cigarettes. No better smoke can be made.
