BISHOP VS. BISHOP

When bishops disagree who will decide?

The theological world is more or less stirred up over the statement of Bishop Barnes, Bishop of Birmingham, in a recent sermon in Westminster Abbey that "Darwin's Triumph has destroyed the whole theological scheme." And adds, "man is not a being who has fallen from an ideal state of perfect innocence. He is a rising animal, who is slowly gaining spiritual understanding and rising far above his distant ancestors." The Genesis account of creation and the Garden of Eden story he characterizes of "folklore."

On the other hand, Bishop Joseph Schrembs, of the Roman Catholic diocese of Cleveland, says, "it is difficult to see how a man holding such principles can still proclaim himself a believer in Christianity and, above all, how a Christian church can recognize him as their bishop." To Bishop Schrembs "Christianity and all its institutions stand or fall with the acceptance of the fundamental principles of man's creation by God, man's fall through sin and his redemption through the blood of Christ."

Here is a case where a little "spiritual discernment" would come in handy.

LET THEM ALONE

Under the heading "Bible's Foes Harmless," the Literary Digest of recent date discusses the action of Justice Thomas C. Crain of New York in refusing incorporation papers to an anti-Bible society. This action of Justice Crain stamps him as a very poor sport, or he would be willing to let both sides of the controversy have an equal chance. If the Bible can't stand up under criticism there must be something wrong with it. The judge evidently hasn't as much faith in the right triumphing as had Gamaliel in a somewhat similar case. In advising the brethren in regard to some obnoxious doctrines that were being taught he said:

"And now I say unto you, refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought: But if it be of God ye cannot overthrow it; lest happily ye be found even to fight against God."

To the credit of the church men quoted, this is about the attitude they took in the matter.

METHODIST COMMUNITY NOTES

Next Sunday morning Rev. M. H. Lines will preach for us and Prof. Theo. Isaacs will have charge of the singing, with Mrs. Kennison at the piano. The Junior church will be combined with the congregation upstairs during the revival services. Be sure to be on hand at this first service.

The Epworth League expects to use the "Win Mr. Cham" program during the meetings.

Remember the Ladies Aid Sale and Tea next week.

Anyone desiring to entertain the evangelists for noon or evening meals should tell Mrs. Cooper.

Rev. M. S. Hamilton, district superintendent of the Western district, will be in Nyssa Monday evening, October 24, and will conduct the first quarterly conference of the year after the revival services on that evening. This is one of the most important meetings of the year. Let every member be present.

Anger an Incentive

Anger of any kind is naturally a sign of failure in getting our own way and an incentive to push ahead to get it. Suspect then your judgment if angry and postpone the matter. It's safer.—Pickens County (Ala.) Herald.

Unoccupied

One thing the discovery of the North pole proved is that there's no one sitting on top of the world.—Arkansas Gazette.

Heaven Is Considerate

Heaven is ever kind to us; she puts our humps on our backs so that we can't see them.—Josh Billings.

WHIPPED DAUGHTER

What the Fayette Waterprise characterizes as one of the most sensational cases in the history of the probate court of Fayette county was held in that city recently when M. H. Falae, a preacher residing in fruitland, appeared in court charged with habitual cruelty to a 16 year old daughter. The case grew out of a severe whipping at the hands of the father on Saturday night of October 1. The child was temporarily removed from the custody of the parents. It is believed a difference of opinion between the father and daughter regarding bobbed hair, etc., is what caused the trouble.

Not Supreme Quality
Conscientiousness is no trustworthy guarantee of wisdom or intelligence.

Civilization and Song

The early civilization might not impress us so much if history had recorded their popular songs.—El Dorado Tribune.

Pleasant Thought

Let us not forget that a good deal of our prosperous appearance is due to driving a mortgaged car over a bonded road.—American Lumberman.

Strength in Gentleness

Gentle words, quiet words, are after all, the most powerful words. They are more convincing, more compelling, more prevailing.—Washington Gladden.

Horse Show Offers $35,000.00

FAMOUS SIX-HORSE TEAM

Owned by Portland Damascus Milk Company, J. D. Huston, Up.

As in years past one of the spectacular attractions at the 1927 Pacific International Horse Show will be the contest between the drivers of the Northwest's famous six-horse hitch. These contests probably bring the audience to a higher pitch of enthusiasm than any other of the sterling events of the Show. The 17th Annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition, with which the Horse Show is combined, will be held in Portland October 29 to November 5, inclusive. $35,000.00 is to be given this year in premiums for the Horse Show, making this event, for the fourth time in succession, the greatest Horse Show in America. The stakes and their donors include Olympic Hotel, Seattle, $4,000.00, with the balance all coming from Portland, Oregon, as follows: Oregon Journal, $2,000.00; Multnomah Hotel, $2,000.00; Portland Chamber of Commerce, $2,000.00; Portland Hotel, $2,000.00; First National Bank, $2,000.00; Benson Hotel, $1,000.00; W. F. Turner, $1,000.00; United States National Bank, $1,000.00; American Security Exchange Bank-Lumberman's Trust Co., $1,000.00; West Coast National Bank, $1,000.00; Imperial Hotel, $500.00; H. Liebes & Co., $500.00; Supporter of the Pacific International Horse Show, $500.00. The amount of the Premiums offered for this year's Pacific International Livestock Exposition totals $100,000.00. The Exposition combines great Livestock Show, Dairy Products Show, Land and Manufacturers' Products Show, Northwest Fox Show, Wool Show, Industrial Exposition, and a splendid Boys' and Girls' Club Work Exhibit presented under the name of "Camp Plummer." The railroads of the entire Northwest are offering a special fare-and-one-third rate for the round trip to the Exposition.

Western Wools for World Markets

HAMPSHIRE RAM

Owned by Mt. Haggin Land & Livestock Co., Montana. Grand Champion Ram, 1926 Pacific International Livestock Exposition.

This Ram was the outstanding animal of the breed at the 1926 Pacific International Livestock Exposition. In addition to achieving this distinction it also won the same awards at the 1925 American Royal, and Chicago International Shows. It will probably be shown in the flock being sent by the Mt. Haggin Land and Livestock Co. to the 17th Annual Pacific International to be held at Portland, October 29 to November 5, inclusive. The Sheep Show at the Pacific International will, this year, as in the past, be one of the best of its kind in America. Some of the most noted judges in the country will place the awards. In connection with the Sheep Show a new departure is being added. Under the direction of the Pacific Co-operative Wool Growers Association a comprehensive Wool Show will be held, at which commercial fleeces of all grades will be exhibited. Splendid showings are promised again this year in every division of the exposition which includes great Livestock Show, Dairy Products Show, Land and Manufacturers' Products Show, Northwest Fox Show, Industrial Exposition and world-renowned Horse Show. The Boys' and Girls' Club Work Exhibit this year will be one of the best of its kind in this part of the country. Millions of dollars' worth of the country's finest Pure Bred Beef and Dairy Cattle, Horses, Sheep, Hogs and Goats will compete for the $100,000.00 offered in premiums. The leading railroads of the West co-operate by offering special fare-and-one-third rates for those who wish to attend the Exposition.

Camel

The cigarette that earned first place by its goodness

The greatest endorsement ever given to a cigarette is revealed by the fact that Government figures show that more Camels are being smoked today than ever before. An endorsement by the many—not the few.

If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.
