METHODIST COMMUNITY NOTES

The revival meetings are being well attended, although there are many who are missing out by not coming. The singing is unusually good. Prof. Thomas Isaacs is a splendid song leader as well as soloist. One of his popular numbers is a negro spiritual every night. Rev. Lines is speaking on great subjects, such as "What and where is God," "Where is the Dead," "What is man," etc. You may also ask questions by putting them in the box at the door.

Mrs. Hershey is taping the Sunday services at Ontario in the absence of Rev. Lines.

The Ladies Aid sale and tea was a success.

School Notes

FOOTBALL

A white elephant seemed to have been in the midst of the N. H. S. eleven Friday, for all the fight that the boys could put into the game availed them practically nothing—they could not get going. Up to the third quarter it seemed that the boys would hold Ontario down and possibly score, but luck was against them, for some of the best men were hurt and had to be taken out of the game.

The large score, 41 to 0, was due to the fact that some of the quarters were 35 minutes long and it took 2 hours and 45 minutes to play the game, when ordinarily an hour and a half would have been plenty of time. The stop watches "stopped" too much.

Signs Never Fail

"Pa," said Clarence, "do you believe in signs?" "Some of them, son," replied his dad. "When I get home and find your ma in an exceptionally good humor, with an exceptionally good dinner ready for me, I know it is a sign I'll have to shell out, and when I get home and find her looking like a thunderstorm it is a sign I'm gonna get hell before the evening is over."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A New Kind

Mrs. Tripp walked into a store and said to a clerk: "I want a small, narrow comb about so long, for a slightly bald man with celluloid teeth."

Sidewalk as Frying Pan

The possibility of frying eggs on the pavement was demonstrated in the city of Washington on June 5, 1924, on the asphalt at Fourteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue. The operation took nine minutes.

Frank, at Least

A man writing a begging letter said: "Please lend me $10, and then forget that I ever existed. I am not worthy of your memory."

In the Old Town Tonight

We read that thyme was used by the Romans as a cure for low spirits. Hot thyme, doubtless.—Arkansas Gazette.

Sad Mistake

"What has become of that crack salesman you had in here?" asked a friend of the manager of Geak & Son, dealers in exclusive ladies' ready-to-wear. "I had to fire him," the manager replied. "He sold four of Solomon's wives an identical model of gown, and told each of them that there positively wasn't another one like it in existence."

No Cause for Sorrow

Having met various members of the intelligentsia, it is hard for us to burst out crying over the scientist's assertion that the intelligentsia is committing race suicide.—San Diego Union.

Spins Away Suds

Spins Away Water

This washer dries clothes for the line while it washes another tubful sweet and clean without hand rubbing. The powerful agitator spins out the dirt. The dryer-chamber spins out the water—faster and better than any wringer.

A Patented Revolving Turret Drainboard returns the suds to the washer tub and rinse water to rinse tubs placed at any angle with the machine.

Both the washer tub and the dryer-chamber are blue porcelain enameled.

ONLY $5 DOWN

After you have tried the A B C SPINNER in your home and found what a great labor saving appliance it is, you can keep it there, to do your washings week after week, for a first payment of only $5.00. Then while you are enjoying your SPINNER you can complete the balance in easy monthly sums. Phone, at once, for a FREE Trial.

Camel

The cigarette preferred by experienced smokers

In the remarkable growing popularity of the cigarette many brands have bid for favor, but Camel continues to lead by billions. Quality put it there; quality keeps it there.

If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.
