ONLY GOOD IN SPOTS

Dealer—So you don't like this beautiful leopard-skin rug?
Customer—No, it seems to me to be good only in spots.

When a Feller Needs a Friend

Of all sad words
A man to jar;
"Another note
Due on your car."

Flying Wrong Plane

"Maybe we oughtn't to have let this aviation get so big a start on us," said Senator Sorghum.

"What's the objection to it?"
"It makes heroes too suddenly. A little thing like a flight of oratory cuts no figure whatever."—Washington Star.

The Hero

Governor—Why do you think I should pardon your client from the penitentiary?

Lawyer—I can prove that on April 7 of this year he had a good chance to purloin an iron bar from the prison machine shop and hit the warden over the head with it, and he didn't do it!

On Good Behavior

Magistrate (to prisoner)—How long is it since you appeared in a police court before?

Prisoner—Twenty years, your worship.

Magistrate—And where were you all that time?

Prisoner—In prison.

It Was to Him

Salesman—Here's something very new, madam—a combination magazine rack and smoking stand.

Mrs. Dudley—Humph! That's nothing new. Any piece of furniture is a combination smoking stand to my husband.

Well, Well!

The Nevada embezzlement scandalized Benson Billingshurst, the Reno biologist and educator, to say sadly at a Reno reception:

"Well, well! We are all men of probity, it seems as long as you don't probe."

SKINNING THE BOOBS

Lynx—How much did you lose on the Hare-Tortoise race?

Fox—Not a seed. I had inside information that the race was fixed so I kept off it.

Photomania

The world is full of picture books.
A dazzled public blinks,
Intent on how a person looks
Instead of what he thinks.

Her Sweet Revenge

Mrs. A.—That woman next door bought a hat exactly like mine.

Husband—And now I suppose you won't speak.

Mrs. A.—Not after she finds I've given mine to her cook.

Very Much So

Wife—Dear, a little bird told me you were going to buy me a car for my birthday.

Hubby (broke)—That bird must have been a little cuckoo.

Close Harmony

Hotel Manager—Hey! Wake up your saxophone player! He's sitting there asleep!

Orchestra Leader—Shh! You see he snores and makes better music when he's asleep than when he's awake.

Doggone Shame

The young husband could eat no more of his wife's mince pies.

"That's a pity," she said, "for if you don't I shall have to give them to the dog!"

"Yes; it's a pity; he's such a nice dog!"

Quite the Contrary

Hired Man (nipping his brow)—Gosh, boss, it ain't much fun workin' with the thermometer 93 in the shade.

Farmer Haystack—Well, ye dern fool, what's that to you? I'm not askin' you to work in the shade, am I?

Out West

"Chief," asked a visitor in Fort Mink, "can you tell me where I buy some of those Indian beadwork?"

"I got mine from a mail-order house in Rochester, N. Y."

keeps right on delivering enjoyment

Camel holds the leadership because it delivers complete smoking pleasure—that's Camel's platform.

If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.
