IT ISN'T THE TOWN

"If you want to live in the kind of a town.

Like the kind of a town you like, You needn't slip your clothes in a grip.

And start on a long, long hike You'll only find what you left behind, For there's nothing that's really new.

It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town, It isn't the town—it's you.

Real towns are not made by men afraid.

Lest somebody else gets ahead.

When everyone works and nobody shirks

You can raise a town from the dead

And if while you make your personal make

Your neighbors can make one, too, Your town will be what you want to see.

It isn't the town—it's you.
