W. C. T. U. NOTES

The W. C. T. U. held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs.
Sherwood with eleven women in attendance. Jupiter must have had something to do with the planitory influence of the day, for much mirth accompanied the business carried on during the afternoon.

A vote was taken for the organization to put on a float and enter the parade at Vale the 4th of July. Mrs. Callas has charge of the float for the W. C. T. U. and Mrs. George Toombs has charge of the float for the Loyal Temperance Legion, which is a branch of the W. C. T. U. organization and the only L. T. L. in Malheur County.

One of the Higby trucks has been secured for the women's float, and a hayrack will be draped and hooked on behind for the L. T. L.

The two chairman of the floats have chosen as their assistants Mrs. Betty Forbes and Mrs. Irene Gilechrist.

It is hoped that every member of both organizations will be ready to help. Let's take the prize.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Having captured the prize for waiting on two former occasions at the State Druggists Conventions C. L. Mc-Coy won the prize at this year's convention.

Mrs. J. Boydell was hostess to the Tuesday evening bridge club. Four tables were in play. The home was beautifully decorated in spring flowers.
Mrs. John Cancellone won first prize while Mrs. Barney Wilson captured second prize. A guest prize was given Mrs. Spier. A two course luncheon was served.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Frank Hall entertained, honoring Mrs. Spier who is here visiting from Washington, D.
C. The guests were old time friends of Mrs. Spier. Two tables of bridge were in play. A lovely luncheon was served and a social afternoon enjoyed.

The O. E. S. chapter met Wednesday evening. The usual business was carried on and the chapter will discontinue their meetings until the first week in September.

Even Better Effect

Exercise is just as valuable when
