W. C. T. U. NOTES

The Lawn Party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Beam by the W. C. T. U. proved to be one of the most successful of its kind given in Nyssa.

About fifty people were in attendance and after a half hour devotional service by Rev. De-Board, a short program followed.

Those taking part were: Irene Gilchrist, Mrs. Gus. Callas, R. J. Davis and Mabel Higby.

After the program, Mrs. Sherwood and Mrs. Hawkins served light refreshments.

HARRY NEWBY IS WOUNDED BY SHOT

Harry Newby, youngest son of Mrs. Newby, accidentally shot himself through the left leg Monday morning while he was handling a six shooter which he had gotten the day before.

In the presence of several of his young associates at the Hoxie Garage, who had also been looking at the gun, he pointed the revolver down and in some way the gun was discharged, the bullet penetrating his left leg, passing through but missing the bone.

Due to the absence of Dr. Sarazin, who is away on vacation, the lad was immediately rushed to Ontario where Dr. Weiss dressed the wound and latest reports are that he is doing nicely and unless unforeseen conditions arise he will soon recover.

THREE MEN INJURED NEAR DUNAWAY SIDING

An accident on the power line near Dunaway Siding the early part of the week resulted in three ground men being burned when high powered wires fell striking them. We have been unable to obtain detailed information as to the real cause of the accident or the names of the injured parties, however one of the men was so badly burned so as to necessitate his being taken to the Holy Rosary hospital where he is reported to be recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Lackey and Mrs. Tom Butler left for the Lackey home at LaGrande, Oregon, Sunday. Word has been received by relatives and friends that a fire had burned the apartment house where they were living and they lost everything, barely escaping with their lives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McConnell attended the Missouri picnic at Payette Sunday and report a most enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Caneelmo, Jess Caneelmo, Mrs. C. L. McCoy and Mrs. Artie Robertson are Boise visitors today.

Dr. J. J. Sarazin and family are enjoying a vacation at Portland and Salem. They will also visit the Nedry family at Tigard before their return.

Had Read Genesis 9:13

"Robert, tell me something about Noah's Ark."

"Which one?"

"I didn't know there were more than one."

"Oh, yes, there were—there was Noah's ark, the ship, and Noah's arc, the rainbow."

ONLY TO TALK ABOUT

Friend Bill—"Does she know Mrs. Jones well enough to talk to?" Maggle—"No, only to talk about."

The Solemn Aspect

We think a man who wears a frown Has something on his mind. And give to many a mimic clown The burdens of mankind.

Fussy

An elderly lady walked into a railroad ticket office in Toronto and asked for a ticket to New York.

"Do you wish to go by Buffalo?" asked the ticket agent.

"Certainly not!" she replied; "by train, if you please!"

Let's Sit This Out

He—"Do you care for dancing?" She—"No." "Why not?" "It's mere hugging set to music." "Well, what is there about it that you don't like?" "The music."

Too Much Leverage

"Poor Zeb Hayfield. He's been counting for years on his boy's coming back and lifting the mortgage."

"And then?"

"He came back and lifted the silverware."—Passing Show.

DROPPED AND CRACKED

She—"Jim Jones is certainly cracked. He—Probably—his girl dropped him."

The Difference

Man wants but little here below. Nor wants that little long; Our prima donna wants more, though, And want it for a song.

Knew Herself

She—"I'll grant your income would be enough for us to marry on, if only you hadn't such expensive fads."

He—"Expensive fads? What expensive fads have I?"

"Me, for one."

Happy Ending

Jane—"So Kit married Charlie. Was it a perfect romance?"

Marie—"Yes, indeed. She gets every cent of her alimony on the very day it's due."—Town Topics.

A Sad Case

"Herbert, why are you wearing glasses in bed?"

"I'm getting so shortsighted, my dear, that I can't recognize the people I dream about."

Wouldn't Show

Bill—"You're buying your girl's face powder now?"

Harry—"Yes, some that won't show on a blue serge suit."

Wouldn't Hate Much

Clarence—"All your love for me has turned to hate."

Glenda—"If it had I wouldn't hate you very much."

Two Varieties

The Man With an Artistic Soul—Were all the people you met there artistic?

Sweet Young Thing—Some of them were, but some were quite nice.

The Graver Crime

State's Attorney—Do you think we can convict him for that bank job? Assistant—No, but I think we can get him for running past that stop signal after the robbery.

RESULT OF A STRIKE

Autolst—"What caused the great fire?" Civilian—"It was the result of a strike in the match factory."

Idealization

My candidate is honest, good and true And very generous and kind. I seldom meet him. I confide to you I make him up from my own mind.

More Graft

"So Binks has a new money-making scheme. What is it this time?" "He plans getting the checking concession for hats in the political ring."

Notions for Him

Applicant—I have a world of imagination, sir, and— The Boss—Fine! I'll put you to work at the notions counter!

Comfort

John—Did you bathe much while you were down South?

Mae—Yes, but when it was too hot and stuffy to put on a bathing suit we just lounged in our ordinary things."

In the Suburbs

"That's my place you see over there—the house and the garage close by."

"Which is the garage, old man?"

SCARCELY THE SAME

She—"Didn't you say her acting was just lovely?"

He—"No—I said she was a lovely actress."

Not Properly Preserved

Their acquaintance ripened into love And then, alas, it got Quite over-ripe; at least there came A time when it seemed all rot.

The Why of It

"What is life insurance, little Gage?"

"It's keeping a man poor all his life so's he can die rich."

Great

First Lawyer—Our client is reaching for his pocketbook.

Second Lawyer—Yes, that's a notion for a new trial.
