HOLD TAX INVESTIGATING CONFERENCE

December 11th, a joint conference of the Tax Investigating Commissions of the three Coast states, California, Oregon and Washington was held at San Francisco at the offices of the California Tax Commission.

This was the second meeting held by the Pacific Coast States, the first having been at Seattle the 27th of August in connection with the meeting of the National Tax Association at that place.

At the meeting at San Francisco those present from California were: Irving Martin, Chairman, R. B. Hale, Ray L. Riley, State Comptroller, W. C. Carr, Lieutenant Governor, H. S. Carnahan, Alexander R. Heron, Head of Department of Finance and Frank L. Gueren, the Commission's attorney.

Those present from Oregon were: John H. Carlin, Chairman, C. C. Chapman, Oregon Voter, A. R. Shumway, Legislative Committee Grange and Farmer's Union, L. B. Smith, Secretary Greater Oregon's Association, and Carl Haberlach.
