ADVENTIST MEETINGS

Are being held every Monday and Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Mormon church. Also Sabbath school at 2:30 and preaching at 3:30 every Sabbath or Lord's day (Saturday). All who want truth are invited to attend these Bible lectures, where God's word only is taught. C. J. Rider and Paul Iverson.

Now for Inquirer: He claims he actual seventh day Sabbath cannot be kept on a round world. God has commanded it under pain of death if we disobey, and I am sure God knew it was round when he made it. Our people have been keeping it for over 80 years and traveled around the world from east to west and west to east, and have not found the least difficulty in keeping it on the same day. Does the world flatten out flat on Sunday, so the people can keep it? I think every honest person can see the deception or all these quibbles. Now for the truth.

I find the best way to show up untruths is to turn on the searchlight of God's word. The only way to drive darkness out of a room is to turn on the light. Isa. 8:20. No light is one who speaks against God's holy law. Satan was the first one to disobey God's law and has been working through people ever since to get them to disobey God's law, and has been wonderfully successful in getting even professed Christians and ministers to break it. In 2 Cor. 4:2 it shows that Paul did not handle the word of God deceitfully, but that is just what everyone is doing (using the word of God deceitfully) when they say we do not need to keep all ten of the commandments. The ten commandment law is a distinct separate law from all others. Existed before man sinned, Rom 4:5. Adam and Eve broke it, the 8th command, 1 John, 3:4, and sinned. The law of sacrifices and ceremonies did not exist until after man had sinned; never would have existed if man had not sinned. It was made to last only till Christ died on the cross. Those sacrifices of animals only showed their faith that Christ would die for their sins. So passed away at the cross, Col. 2:14. The 10 commandment law is truth and righteousness and perfect and holy and spiritual and will endure as long as God endures. God spoke this law in the hearing of all the people, Deut. 5:22 and wrote them on stone and added NO MORE—just the 12, no more, written on two tables of stone. Only the devil or his servants try to mix up this law of righteousness and perfection with others. It is separate from all other laws, handwriting, ordinances, etc., that pointed to Christ. These other laws were not spoken by God to the people but to Moses and he gave them to the people, Deut. 5:31, and Moses wrote them in a book, Deut. 31:24. Luther, Wesley, Spurgeon, Finney and all other true Christians have always made a clear distinction between the 10 commandment law and all others. And the Methodist discipline, page 11, article 6, says: Although the law given from God by Moses as touching ceremonies and rights doth not bind Christians, nor ought the civil precepts thereof of necessity be received in any commonwealth: yet notwithstanding NO CHRISTIAN WHATSOEVER is free from the OBE-DENCE of the commandments which are called MORAL.

The whole thing in a nutshell is this: They find themselves professing to keep Sunday, or the first day of the week, for their rest day or Sabbath, and they are bound to hold to it, although they know there is no command for it in the Bible, and begin to try to tear out the 4th command in God's holy perfect law, so that they will have an excuse to keep their counterfeit Sabbath Sunday, that the man of sin set up in defiance of God's Sabbath, the seventh day, Dan. 7:25 and 2 Thess. 2:3-4. Now the difference between them and us is just this: We believe in keeping all ten of the commandments just as God wrote them on the two tables of stone. They believe in keeping nine of them just the way we do. But with one God made a terrible blunder and that one was the fourth or Sabbath commandment. Although God said the reason he made the seventh day the Sabbath was because he rested from the work of creation on that day. They have had a terrible hard time in trying to tear out that fourth commandment.
