Henry Smith died at his home in Apple Valley, Friday, Aug. 22, following a long illness with cancer.
Deceased was born in Illinois, Aug.
25, 1858 and if he had lived until Monday would have been 72 years old. Funeral services were held at Picabo on Sunday and he was laid to rest beside his wife, who preceded him in death a number of years ago. He leaves to mourn his loss four sons, Marion and Mark, of near Boise, Raymond, of Richfield and Charles at home, two daughters, Mrs. Lois Yeakel and Mrs. Hazel Schwager, a brother, Charles Smith, of Red Bluff, Calif., and a sister in Illinois. The sympathy of the community goes out to the family in their hour of sorrow.

Mrs. A. L. Monser arrived home last week from Los Angeles, Calif.

moved from the Hinch place to Home dale.

The Ladies Aid met with Mrs.
Pettit and Mrs. Bailey Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Rucker as assisting hostess. The business and devotional meeting was led by the vice-president, Miss Gertrude Hicks. The annual election of officers was held and the same officers were re-elected for another year. They are as follows: President, Mrs. Jess Baker; Vice-Pres., Miss Gertrude Hicks; Secretary, Mrs. A. B. Miller; Treasurer, Mrs. Levi Stephens. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in sewing and the hostess served ice cream and cake.

Odd Form of Oath
The demsters or judges in the Isle of Man undertake upon oath to administer justice "as equally as Ieth the backbone in the herring."

Historic New York Section
The so-called Anneke Jans tract contained about 62 acres in New York city, extending from Warren court, along Broadway to Duane street, thence northwest a mile and a half to Christopher street, the Hudson river forming the base of a sort of unequal triangle.

Liner's Fish Supply
While it might be supposed that a steamship crew could catch its own fish, large liners now in the transatlantic tourist business carry for each trip 8,000 clams, 200 crabs, 500 barrels of oysters, and 1,500 pounds of fresh fish.

Rejuvenating Your Home

Buildings, like people, cannot help getting out of repair at times. A house needs doctoring as well as a human. Faulty roofing, defaced millwork, cracked stuccoing—all can be remedied—the sooner the cheaper.
Remember, "A stitch in time saves nine."

We are thoroughly qualified to furnish you with the materials necessary for your remodeling job. Pride in your home dictates such a course and the value of your property will be considerably enhanced by such a step as well.
