

WATER FLOWS IN OWYHEE DITCH

KINGMAN KOLONY SCHOOL WILL PRESENT OPERETTA FOR 4-H
CLUB BENEFIT NEXT FRIDAY
EVENING, MAY 8.

Kingman Kolony—Water was turned into the Owyhee irrigation ditch last week for the 1931 season. Irrigation adds to the many spring activities on the farm. Early indications point to a good crop year on the Owyhee.

Kingman boys were defeated by the Wade nine Friday on the Kingman court 14 to 24. There were two home runs, one by Dalles Colomes and the other by Dean Eachus, both Wade players. Kingman will have one more game this season with Owyhee May 8, on the Kingman court.

The girls' game was interesting, Wade girls winning 10 to 5.

An operetta, "Florinda or 'The Rose and Pearl'" will be given at the Kingman Kolony school Friday evening, May 8, at 8:15, to raise money to send 4-H club members to summer school at Corvallis. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

Geraldine Bach, fifth grade pupil from Kingman Kolony, won in the district spelling match which was held at Oregon Trail last Wednesday. She will go to Vale Saturday, May 2.

Oregon Trail nine defeated Kingman two weeks ago Friday at the Big Bend Park by 5 to 0. E. B. Hudson was umpire.

A picnic and preliminary track meet was held at the Big Bend park two weeks ago Friday. Schools participating were: Kingman Kolony, Wade, Oregon Trail and Owyhee. Owyhee had the strongest track team, winning by 75 points. Wade made 65 points and Oregon Trail and Kingman Kolony tied for third.

The school district bought the school a new vaulting pole for track. Kingman has a pretty strong team and hopes to win the rural cup again this year.

The Adrian pavilion was purchased by E. C. Hopkins from Joe Hansen and Clark Enos about two weeks ago. Mr. Hopkins is making it into a small hotel and barber shop.

Mrs. Hedrick had some sad news reach her by a telegram last Thursday. The telegram said that her mother and sister were dead. No details were given concerning the accident. Hedricks left last evening for Texas, whence the sad message came.

D. T. Holly and family went to Lake Lowell last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Toombs held a birthday party for the three Toombs boys last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Hatt and Mary Toombs were Boise visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Overstreet of Boise were visitors in the R. R. Overstreet home Sunday. They and Judds went to the Owyhee dam.

Mr. and Mrs. George Glasscock were Boise visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Clement, from the Owyhee, was a week-end visitor in Ontario.

Carnegie Hero Will Buy Home With Fund

Sunbury, Pa.—Permission has been given by the Carnegie hero fund commission to R. A. Adams, railroad trainman, to buy a home here with the money he received from the commission in recognition of his heroism. Adams received a medal and a $1,000 cash allotment as a reward for saving the life of his neighbor, Asher Landenslager, who was in danger of electrocution when entangled in live wires.

Mother Sees Son Burn to Death in His Home

West Branch, Mich.—Demos Laporte, fifty-eight, was burned to death in his home, where he lived alone. His aged mother, who lived a short distance away, was awakened by a bright light, and going to a window saw the house on fire and the roof falling in. She called her two other sons. They broke in a window and found Laporte dead.

Children Ask Later Curfew
Fairmont, Minn.—Children appeared before the city council here and asked that the curfew hour be advanced from 9:30 to 10 p. m. "Our parents don't get in until 10 o'clock," they said, "and we just have to wait outside for them to let us in anyway."

Pigeon Flies to School
Roanoke, Va.—Ronald Collins has no little lamb which follows him to school as did that of a certain little girl named Mary. But he does have a pet pigeon which flies to his classroom with him in Virginia Heights every day.

A Treasure Worth Guarding

Good Credit is a Golden Possession

A good credit standing like a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches. It carries with it prestige, influence, confidence, honor, trust, faith and esteem.

One cannot afford to sacrifice this essential part of life, especially as it requires so little effort to maintain it. All that is required is to plan according to one's income—the modern phrase is, "budgeting one's expenditures."

In making purchases on a credit basis one should always have in mind: "Will our income justify this, and leave us in a position to pay this obligation when due?"

This is offered as a suggestion in an effort to aid individuals in this community to maintain a high credit standing, one of the most valuable assets any one can possess.
