mutal reunion of Lower Boise Valley Pioneer association at Big Bend park last Sunday. Governor C. Ben Ross of Idaho and Dr. Wm. J. Boone, president of the College of Idaho of Caldwell were the principal speakers. Thos. Welsh, of Big Bend, president of the association, presided and in his genial way did much toward making the reunion a happy occasion.

The day's program opened with church services in the morning conducted by Dr. Boone. He talked of Abraham, as the first pioneer, and paid a high tribute to the sturdy characteristics of all pioneers. Alva Watt of Parma lead singing with Mrs. Watt, accompanied.

An unusually large crowd was present for an old-fashioned picnic dinner, spread under the trees of beautiful Big Bend Park, the work of Big Bend pioneers.

Then followed the afternoon program, a delightful treat. C. W. Albertson of Parma lead the singing. Enjoyable numbers were given by a male quartet.
Walter Mitchell of Parma paid a tribute to departed members. H. R. Hatch gave a eulogy to the memory of Ira Brumbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H.
Brumbach of Big Bend, who died in Alaska. Governor Ross delivered a splendid pioneer address.

George Tureman and daughter Bernice of Baker are guests in the Joe King home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Roberts made a trip to Caldwell Saturday to visit their daughter Mrs. Clyde Riggs at Caldwell Sanitarium and make the acquaintance of their new grandson Roland James.

Miss Lucille Rogers of San Diego, Cal., arrived Saturday for a visit in the Peck home.

Miss Irene Brumbach spent several days visiting Ontario friends during the week.

Members of Big Bend park board are busily engaged in making plans for the big celebration July 4. The races will take place in the morning. A basket dinner or lunch served from the stands will follow. After dinner the program, which will be very interesting since Senator Borah of Idaho will be the principal speaker, will take place.

Ball games and dance will follow.

TOPSY COMES HERE WITH UNCLE TOM'S CABIN MON., JUNE 29

Who has not heard the expression made famous by Topsy in "Uncle Tom's Cabin"—"I was never born, I just grewed." It is almost as famous as the role itself. Over a period of 75 years, most of the big female names in the theatrical world at some time or other, have been associated with this part and without exception, they have all claimed as their favorite part.

Hope Wallace, who plays this important part in William J. Harvall's production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which comes to Nyssa on Monday, June 29, has played the role for several years and has been acclaimed by many critics as the ideal type. Miss Wallace has been identified with some of the largest stock companies in this country and in England with her vaudeville specialty.

Each winter finds her with some big stock company, but when the bluebirds whistle in the spring, she hastens back to the tent show. After having witnessed her mirth-provoking performance, few people recognize the beautiful, golden haired girl who sings solo number in the scene depicting the death of Uncle Tom, as the dirty, roguish imp with stylized skin, who but a short time before, literally made them hold onto their sides with laughter.

OWYHEE P. T. A. GIVES SOCIAL EVE

Owyhee—An ice cream social given Martha Klingback, returned home re-ald were guests of Glen McGinnis in tario are spending the week with their daughter Mrs. Chas. Bradley. The F.

T. Crawley family were guests Sunday
