

Ray Marries Young Portland Miss Saturday

Dewey Ray, prominent young business man of Nyssa, made a trip to Winnemucca Saturday on business and decided he would like to wed in the Nevada county seat. His bride, a charming young lady, was Miss Vera Markwell of Portland. She has been the guest of Mr. Ray and his mother Mrs. C. D. Cox at the Ray home in Nyssa the last few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Ray returned from Winnemucca Sunday and on Monday Mrs. Cox returned to Boise.

Ray is associated with Sidney Burbridge in the Nyssa Packing company. He has lived here many years and has a host of friends who wish him and his bride the best of happiness.

Young folks chartered Mr. and Mrs. Ray Monday night.

HUSBANDS AT BRIDGE

A delightful evening bridge party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Boydell, with Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Norcott as joint hosts, last Friday night was distinctive in that both husbands and wives were guests. Gentlemen seemed to enjoy the occasion quite as much as ladies. Eight tables were arranged for cards in the attractive living room and dining room of the Boydell home, one of the newer homes in Nyssa. Joint scores, tallied at the close of the evening, disclosed the following winners: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McLaughlin, first; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McCoy, second; Mr. and Mrs. Leo D. Hollenberg, third; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lindley, consolation. The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Artie Robertson, served a luncheon at the close.

W. C. T. U. PLANS PROGRAM

Three major planks in the year's program of the Nyssa W. C. T. U. will be child welfare, evangelistic meetings and the continuance of scientific temperance instruction in the schools. These activities were favored at the regular meeting Tuesday at the Hotel Western when Mrs. Florence Meyer and Mrs. Jess Spencer were hostesses. Mrs. Walter Marshall was appointed director of the flower mission and relief. To fill out the staff of officers, Mrs. John Kilpatrick was voted second vice president; Mrs. W. A. Austin, third. Mrs. Leon Higby, president, asked that each member commit to memory the catechism of the W. C. T. U. Weekly prayer meetings will be held every Tuesday night, the first having met with Mrs. Hazel D. Guidice.

RALLY DAY PROGRAM

Primary and junior departments gave an enjoyable Rally Day program at the Methodist Community church Sunday morning. The program follows: recitations by the graduates from the beginning class; welcome, Mary Jane Higby; "Rally Day," Betty Flannery; "Enlist Today," Melba Belle Coleman; "Serve the Lord," Maxine Warren; pantomime, Miss Mabel Posey's class; presentation of intermediate certificates to 12 pupils by Mrs. W. W. Foster, primary superintendent; "Booster Band," Miss Gladys Campbell and Miss Edna; recitations, Jacqueline Barrett, Gloria Rapic; presentation of 15 cradle roll certificates, Miss Arvilla Fauchier; dialogue, Mrs. C. A. Abbott's class; exercise, by the boys of Mrs. Dave Hawkins' class; presentation of 18 certificates to primary children; song, primary and junior departments; memory work, Mrs. Leon Higby's class; recitation, Alta Campbell; song, Ella Martin's class; presentation of certificates to five juniors; recitations, Doris Graham, Sylvia Blaylock. Then followed the morning sermon by Rev. Josie J. Blokland.

TUESDAY BRIDGE

Mrs. J. J. Sarazin was hostess for the Tuesday evening bridge club last week. Complimentary to her sister Mrs. Britt Nedry, who is here from Tigard, Or., Mrs. Sarazin invited guests for an extra table. Mrs. J. Boydell won the guest prize; Mrs. Artie Robertson, first prize for members; Mrs. Ethel Crawford, second. Invited guests were Mrs. Nedry, Mrs. Dick Tensen, Mrs. Boydell and daughter Miss Eva.

MR. AND MRS. CLUB

The first fall meeting of the Mr. and Mrs. Bridge club was the inspiration for a delightful party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Moore in Weiser Tuesday night of this week. Mrs. C. L. McCoy scored highest. A. H. Boydell, second. Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Hall, Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Norcott, Mr. and Mrs. McCoy, Supt. and Mrs. Leo D. Hollenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Boydell.

TEACHERS ENTERTAINED

Guild met with Mrs. Dick Tensen and her mother Mrs. Betty LaFrenz last Wednesday afternoon. Teachers of the Nyssa school were invited for the luncheon and social hour. Twenty-three guests were present.

BOISE PICNIC

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Higby took Mrs. Higby's Sunday School class to Boise Saturday to see The Statesman's Mutt Dog parade and picnic in Julia Davis park. They also inspected the capital building. Class members are Olen Nichols, Vivian Higby, Glen Wolfe, Ruth Flannery, Hollen Snow, Justine Overstreet, Thelma Allen, Jack Dunaway, Houston Wilson, Luella Leuck, Robert Penn, Lester Newton and Annie Rapic. At the party's height, Mr. Higby recalled that the day was both his 30th wedding anniversary and birthday.

BUNCO PARTY

A jolly party for the high school set, given by Miss Thelma Cook, Miss Evelyn Schweizer and Earl Marshall at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall, was an event Friday night. The party was held in the basement, tastefully decorated for the occasion. Each corner of the room was hung with streamers in corresponding colors. Prizes at bunco went to May Keiser, first; and Henry Hatch, consolation. About 24 guests attended. Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. A. V. Cook assisted with serving.

SUNSHINE DRILL

Forty members of the Rebekah Sunshine club were out for drill practice at the lodge hall last Friday night. Mrs. Emma Duncan and Mrs. Mary Pelton were hostesses at the social hour following the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Duncan of Emmett were Saturday night guests of Mrs. Emma Duncan. Sunday they enjoyed a family dinner at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Pelton Duncan.

THIEF SWIPS SEED ON BIG BEND RANCH

Big Bend—(Special)—Ole Hanson, Big Bend farmer, reported the theft of 23½ sacks of alfalfa seed from his store house Saturday night. The thief left no clue.

Mrs. Irwin was here from Ontario to visit her daughter Carlotta and Nyssa friends last week end.

That Little Fellow

represents 20 acres of alfalfa seeded on ground that has been leveled as well as could be with ordinary drag or floats.

He's the picture of short crops. During a period of five or six years he's the picture of enough money wasted on water and labor to pay for an Eversman Automatic Land Leveler four times each year.

The husky, healthy boy represents another 20 acres (same kind of ground) that has been leveled as smooth as the top of your table with an Eversman Automatic Land Leveler.

He's the result of even and economical irrigation—of a much larger crop. No water was wasted in drowning out the low spot while the sun was burning out the high spots. He was easy to mow! Easy to rake! Because an Eversman Automatic Land Leveler was used, waste was turned into PROFIT!

If you don't have an Eversman Leveler, you'll waste enough money on water and labor to pay for it. If you DO have it, you'll SAVE its price—you'll get much better crops. We guarantee it.

Wow-!
what a ball game!

It certainly is worth the price....

Oh Boy!—two runs—two homers apiece—and it's the ninth inning. • The thrills of such a game are well worth the price to a ball fan—and he feels pretty well satisfied with the old home team when it crashes through. • When you compare the cost of the three hours spent in enjoying a ball game, with the cost of three hours use of electricity, you know electricity is cheap. • Look at the home runs for your money pictured below.
